Deze aankondiging moet den boeren welkom zyn, en wy raden hen dus geen tyd te verliezen hunne bezwaren in behoorlyken vorm aan Commissarissen intezenden, en de byzondere posten bekend te stellen, welke naar hun inzien veranderd behooren te worden.

DE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

KAAPSTAD DEN 28 OCTOBER 1845.

DE Engelschen zyn met regt trotsch op hunne burgerlyke vryheden, en kunnen gerust met eenig volk op aarde wedyveren, in opzigt tot de wetten en instellingen ter bescherming derzelve daargesteld.

Zichzelven het genot dier vryheden te verzekeren, is immer het onderwerp van groote bezorgdheid by de kolonisten geweest; en elke inwilliging in dit opzigt door het Britsch Gouvernement gemaakt, werd beschouwd als een groot geschenk, en met dank ontvangen.

Onder die inwilligingen is voorzeker geene van zoo veel nut gebleken als de ten uitvoer gebragte verandering in het judicieel departement, en vooral teregtstelling door gezworenen in crimineele zaken. Het lofwaardig verlangen om de inrigtingen der kolonie langzamerhand met die van het moederland overeen te brengen, werd in dit geval in deszelfs geheele uitgestrektheid toegepast—zich niet alleen bepalende tot teregtstelling door gezworenen, maar Harer Majesteits onderdanen—ten minsten in zoo ver de hoofdplaats der kolonie betreft—ook bovendien die bescherming verzekerende, waardoor de mogelykheid zelfs werd uitgesloten, van voor de publieke regtbank te worden gebragt op eene aanklagt, ter onderschraging waarvan men niet dadelyk genoegzaam bewys konde leveren.

Gedurende een tydsbestek van omtrent zeventien jaren hebben de kolonisten het heilzaam gevolg van laatstgemeld stelsel ondervonden, en naar ons nederig inzien is er nimmer iets voorgevallen hetwelk hen konde hebben doen verlangen naar deszelfs afschaffing, wel bewust van het groot grondbeginsel dat daarin opgesloten ligt, namelyk, een toeverzigt, wanneer zulks vereischt wordt, op alle publieke aanklagers.

Wy erkennen volgaarne dat het stelsel zelf vatbaar is voor groote veranderingen, vooral in opzigt tot de rangschikking diergenen die, overeenkomstig de tegenwoordige bepalingen, bevoegd zyn om als Groote Jurors te dienen, alsmede met betrekking tot hun getal; en niets is tevens verder uit onze gedachten verbannen dan het denkbeeld dat zulk een toeverzigt thans werkelyk vereischt wordt, zoo lang een man, bezield met de rondborstigheid en onpartydigheid van onzen tegenwoordigen publieken aanklager, dat gewigtig ambt bekleedt; maar wie verzekert ons dat dit in de toekomst altoos het geval zal zyn? Kan hierna geen gunsteling van Downingstraat worden uitgezonden, die door onwetendheid of vooroordeel goedvinden mogt ons op de nietsbeduidendste gronden voor de openbare regtbank te slepen? Teregtstelling door gezworenen kan in zulke gevallen eene groote zekerheid zyn, maar is slecht berekend om ons te beschermen tegen de vernedering welke zulk eene tentoonstelling onvermydelyk na zich slepen moet.

Het stelsel is nu, gelyk wy reeds gezegd hebben, omtrent zeventien jaren in werking geweest, en de kolonisten hebben dus voldoende gelegenheid gehad over deszelfs nuttigheid te oordeelen. Maar afgescheiden hiervan, zouden wy hen raden te overwegen, of het raadzaam zy een voorregt te laten varen, waarvan zy zich gemoedelyk bediend hebben, op een oogenblik wanneer, tot hunne grootste verwondering, de ernstige beschuldiging ten hunnen laste wordt gelegd, door een van de Regters des lands, "dat zy niet altoos eerlyk en gemoedelyk, naar hunne beste bekwaamheid gehandeld hebben, en dat hunne uitspraken somwylen geregeerd werden door vooroordeelen, natuurlyk, of misschien noodwendiglyk ontstaande uit klas of geslacht!" *

Wy zeggen, ernstige beschuldiging, omdat wy maar al te wel weten dat wanneer dezelve eenige schaduw van waarheid bevatte—en wy nemen de vryheid dit stellig te ontkennen—zulks ten vollen berekend zoude zyn om de Kolonisten, in het oog van het Britsch Gouvernement, als ongeschikte voorwerpen te doen voorkomen tot het genot van die hoogere voorregten waartoe zy zich steeds geregtigd hebben beschouwd, en ter verkryging waarvan, zy onophoudelyk hunne uiterste pogingen hebben aangewend.

Het is voorzeker een gulden regel, geene oude zaken weder voor den dag te brengen welke reeds lang door de bevoegde regtbanken beslist zyn; en partyen in het ongestoord bezit te laten van de voorregten welke zy door die uitwyzingen mogten hebben erlangd. Maar deze regel kan, naar ons nedrig inzien, met evenveel nadruk worden toegepast op diegenen die werktuigelyk waren in de beslissing van zoodanige zaken; en het moet inderdaad hartverscheurend zyn voor diegenen, die, zonder vrees, gunst of vooroordeel, den heiligen pligt hen opgelegd getrouwelyk hebben vervuld, van achteren aangevallen te worden met zulke ongevraagde, ja onverantwoordelyke aanmerkingen, als die welke de geleerde Regter zich geregtigd beschouwde op die respectabele klasse onzer zamenleving—de Groote Jurors der Kolonie—te hoopen.

Welke gevoelens tot het tegendeel ook mogen worden gekoesterd, wy, voor ons, zyn van gevoelen, dat de kolonisten zich niet stilzwygend behoorden te onderwerpen aan de afschaffing van een voorregt—indien zoodanig plan mogte worden voorgesteld—zulk een groot beschermend stelsel in zich sluitende, hetwelk, in deszelfs geringere byzonderheden behoorlyk gematigd wordende, nog in toekomende tyden de belangrykste voorregten aanbrengen kan; en hetwelk hen bovendien in de gelegenheid stellen zal de geheele beschaafde wereld te toonen dat zy de hun aangewreven beschuldiging niet verdienen, maar integendeel al ryper en ryper worden voor het genot dier hoogere vryheden welke elk Britsche onderdaan het regt beeft als zyn wettig erfdeel te beschouwen!

DE NIEUWE GEREFORMEERDE KERK.

Met genoegen kunnen wy onze lezers, en vooral dezulken onder hen die tot de Nederduitsche Gereformeerde Kerk behooren, en belang stellen in de uitbreiding derzelve, berigten, dat al de materialen tot de voltooying der Tweede, of Nieuwe Kerk vereischt, en welker aankomst men zoo reikhalzend te gemoet zag, nu van Engeland aangebragt zyn met het schip Northumberland; en dat het werk dadelyk zal worden voortgezet.

Het zal mogelyk niet onbelangryk zyn hen te herinneren dat er nog veel vereischt wordt om de Kerk te voltooyen. Het dak alleen zal, gelyk wy vernemen, omtrent £3000 sterling vereischen, en hiertoe hebben Bouw Commissarissen slechts cirka £250 in handen, buiten omstreeks £1300 door een aantal Leden der Kerk ingeschreven, maar welke nog niet ingevorderd zyn. Om nu deze uitgaaf te bestryken, zoo wel als de kosten van pleisterwerk, consistoriekamer, banken, stoelen, predikstoel, enz. zullen nog vele liefdegaven vereischt worden, en wy meenen dus niets beters te kunnen doen, dan de leden onzer Kerk indachtig te maken aan de duure verpligting welke op hen rust, om, waar zy kunnen, bytedragen tot de goede zaak, de eer van Christus te verbreiden, en zyne Kerk te helpen bouwen.

* Getuigenis van den Heer Regter Menzies voor het Committee van den Wetgevenden Raad over het Judicieel Etablissement.

EMIGRATIE.

De jongste Engelsche dagbladen bevatten het narigt dat het Britsch Gouvernement eindelyk besloten heeft in een stelsel van Emigratie naar deze kolonie te treden.—De Emigranten zullen bestaan in land arbeiders, boeren, huisbedienden, en ambachtslieden. De eerste verzending zoude tegen het einde dezer maand te Southampton scheep gaan. Diegenen die zulk eene grooto behoefte aan arbeiders hebben, zullen dus instaat zyn de keus te doen.

De Gazette van il. Vrydag bevat de volgende aanstellingen, onderworpen aan Harer Majesteits goedkeuring:—

Kapt. Sutton, Kaapsche Scherpschutters te Paard, als Britsche Resident onder de Inlandsche Stammen ten Noord Oosten der Kolonie.

Luit. W. P. Jamison, R.N. als Havenmeester te Port Elizabeth.

Het wordt algemeen gezegd, dat de Heer Walter Harding, Griffier van het Vredegeregt, Swellendam, aangesteld is tot Publieke Aanklager voor het Distrikt van Natal, en dat de Heer C. T. Wylde hem opvolgen zal.

ZUID WEST KUST.

DE SCHOENER "SWIFTSURE."

Kapt. Miller en vier matrozen verlieten het vaartuig in den morgen van den 19 July, op 21° 55 Z. leugte, 14° O., ten einde aan wal te gaan om naar Ogden's Haven te zoeken, terwyl de schoener naar en van wal stond. Kort daarna zag men drie matrozen uit de schuit stappen, en in eene zuidelyke rigting langs het strand gaan. De Heer Sewell bragt de schoener ten anker, en poogde op den volgenden morgen te landen, maar werd verhinderd door de zware brandingen. De schoener stevende toen omstreeks 12 mylen ten zuiden in de hoop om eene landings plaats te vinden, maar vruchteloos. De Heer Sewell ging naar Walwichbaai en verzocht den Heer Dixon om hem eenige inlanders te beschikken, om de schuit en drie matrozen optezoeken, daar hy veronderstelde dat de kapitein en een matroos verdronken waren door het omslaan der schuit op den 19 July. De inlanders bleven drie dagen uit, en zeiden by hunne terugkomst dat zy over de Somersets Rivier geweest waren, waar zy twee versche schedels gevonden hadden; maar zy hadden geen spoor van de schuit of matrozen kunnen vinden.—Shipping Gazette.

MEXICO EN DE VEREENIGDE STATEN VAN AMERIKA.

In weerwil van de bemoeijenis der Fransche en Engelsche Gouvernementen, is Texas eindelyk opgenomen geworden in de Unie der Amerikaansche Staten. Het Gouvernement van Mexico (waarvan Texas voorheen een deel uitmaakte), heeft gevolglyk eene oorlogs verklaring uitgevaardigd, welke echter als ydel geklap schynen moet, wanneer men de zwakheid van dat Gouvernement, vergeleken met de Vereenigde Staten, in aanmerking neemt; en tenzy Frankryk en Engeland haar de behulpzame hand bieden in de handhaving harer regten, is het onmogelyk te zeggen wat van haar worden zal, in geval zy het wagen mogt de vechtende eigenschappen van den Amerikaan te trotseren.

DE KONING VAN HOLLAND.

Zyne Majesteit de Koning der Nederlanden verliet London op den 8 Augustus, op zyne terugreis naar zyn Ryk, zynde hy vooraf verheven geworden tot den rang van Veldmaarschalk in het Britsche leger. Zyne Majesteit bekleedde voormaals den rang van Generaal in dat leger.

FRANKRYK.

Een vernielende Brand (verondersteld het werk van eenen brandstichter te zyn,) had op den 1ste Augustus plaats gehad in het Timmerwerf van Toulon, den voortgang waarvan gestuit werd voordat dezelve het arsenaal bereikte. Een zeer groot bedragen aan eigendom is echter vernield geworden.

DE SLAVEN HANDEL.

Volgens eene onlangs door de Engelsche regering openbaar gemaakte opgave zyn in den loop van 1844 in de nabyheid der westkust van Afrika 13 schepen, als verdacht van slavenhandel te dryven, door de Engelsche kruisers opgebragt. Van deze 13 schepen zyn er 12 door het gemengde geregtshof van Sierra Leona veroordeeld. Zy waren allen zonder onderscheid bestemd, om slaven naar Brazilie over te brengen. Men rekent, dat jaarlyks nog door 120 schepen 60,000 slaven uit Afrika worden weggevoerd, zoodat de Engelsche kruisers tot nu toe slechts in het vermeesteren van een tiende der slavenhaalders geslaagd zyn.—Staats Courant.

UITDEELING VAN NEGERS.

De Collecteur der Douanen zal op den 30 October en 5 November van 9 uren A.M. tot 3 uren P.M., aan Papendorp vaceren, om kontrakten te sluiten met, en Negers toetewyzen aan de ondervolgende personen. De genoemde personen moeten in persoon verschynen om de kontrakten te teekenen en de negers te ontvangen, daar hunne namen anders (behalve onder byzondere omstandigheden) van de lyst geschrapt zullen worden; en diegenen die deze Negers naar buiten nemen, moeten zich daartoe van Kapwagens voorzien:—

THE

CAPE TOWN, OCTOBER 28, 1845.

THE English are justly proud of their civil liberties; and may safely compete with any nation on earth as regards the laws and institutions established for the protection of the same.

To secure to themselves the enjoyment of those liberties, has ever been a subject of great solicitude with the Colonists; and every concession made in this respect by the Home Government, was considered as a great boon, and as such gratefully received.

Among those concessions none has surely proved so highly beneficial as the alteration effected in the Judicial Department, and more especially, Trial by Jury in Criminal Cases. The laudable desire, gradually to assimilate the institutions of the Colony with those of the Mother Country, was in this instance applied in its fullest extent—not confining itself to Trial by Jury alone, but securing to H. M. Subjects,—at least in as far as the capital of the colony was concerned—moreover, that protection by which the possibility was even excluded of being arraigned at the Public Bar of Justice, on an accusation, for the support of which no sufficient proof could be immediately adduced.

During a period of about seventeen years the Colonists have experienced the salutary effects of this latter system, and in our humble opinion nothing has ever happened calculated to induce them to desire its abolishment; well aware of the great principle it involves—a check, when required, on all public prosecutors.

We readily admit that in the system itself, great modifications may be effected, especially in the classification of those qualified to serve as Grand Jurors, according to the present regulations, and with regard to their number. Nothing is also more foreign to our mind then the idea, that such a protection is actually required, so long as a man, endowed with the candidness and impartiality of our present public prosecutor, fills that important office; but who guarantees us that this will always be the case in future? May not, at some distant period, some favorite or other of Downing-street be sent out, who, through ignorance or prejudice, may think fit to arraign us before the public bar of Justice, on the most frivolous gounds? Trial by Jury may, in such instances, be a great safeguard, but ill protects us against the mortification which such an exposé must inevitably occasion.

The system has now, as we already observed, been in operation during about seventeen years, and the Colonists have therefore had an ample opportuny to judge of its utility. But, independent of this, we would advise them to consider whether it would be expedient to allow the disfranchisement of a privilege, of which they have conscientiously availed themselves, at a moment, when, to their utmost surprize, the serious imputation is laid to their charge by one of the Judges of the land, "that they have not always acted honestly and conscientiously to the best of their ability, and that their decisions have been occasionally influenced by prejudices, naturally, or perhaps necessarily, arising from class and race."*

We say, serious imputation, because we are too well aware, that if the same had any shadow of foundation,—which we take the liberty most positively to deny,—it would be well calculated to make the Colonists, in the estimation of the Home Government, unfit subjects for the enjoyment of those higher privileges to which they have all along considered themselves justly entitled, and to attain which, the most strenuous efforts have continually been made.

It is surely a golden rule not again to rake up cases, which have long ago been adjudicated upon by the competent Tribunals; and to leave parties in the undisturbed possession of the advantages they may have obtained from such adjudication. But this rule may, in our humble opinion, be applied with equal force to those who were instrumental in the adjudication of such cases; and it must really be heart-rending to those, who, without fear, favor, or prejudice have faithfully discharged the sacred duty entrusted to them, to be afterwards assailed with such uncalled for, nay unwarrantable remarks, as those which the learned Judge has thought himself justified to heap upon that respectable class of our community—the Grand Jurors of the Colony.

Whatever sentiments may be entertained to the contrary, we are firmly of opinion that the Colonists ought not calmly to submit to the abolishment of a privilege—if such a plan might ever be suggested—involving such a great protective system, which, if duly modified in its minor details, might yet in times to come, be productive of the most important benefits; and which moreover gives them an opportunity to convince the whole civilized world that they ill deserve the imputation laid to their charge, and are, on the contrary, gradually ripening for the enjoyment of those higher immunities which every British subject has a right to consider as his lawful inheritance!

THE NEW DUTCH REFORMED CHURCH.

We are gratified to have it in our power to acquaint our readers, and particularly those among them who belong to the Dutch Reformed Church, and who are interested in its extension, that all the materials required for the completion of the second or new Church, and the arrival of which was so anxiously looked for, have now been received from England by the ship Northumberland, and that the work will be immediately resumed.

It may perhaps not be uninteresting to remind them that a great deal is yet required to complete the Church. The roof alone, we hear, will absorb about £3000, to meet which, the Builders have only about £250 in hands, besides something more than £1300, subscribed by a number of members of the Church, but not yet collected. It is therefore evident that a considerable amount of charitable contributions is still required to defray the above charge not only, but also the costs of the vestry room, plastering, pews, chairs, pulpit,&c., and we consequently consider it incumbent on us to remind the members of the Church of the serious duty devolving upon them to contribute, wherever they can, to the good cause; to promote the honor of Christ, and to assist in extending his Church.

EMIGRATION.

The latest English papers contain intelligence that the Home Government has at length resolved to enter into a scheme of Emigration to this Colony. The Emigrants will consist of agricultural laborers, farm and domestic servants, and artists. The first batch would embark at Southampton about the latter end of this month, and may therefore be expected here in December next. Those who stand so much in need of hands will therefore have an opportunity of making their choice.

MARKET DUES.

On Monday the 20th instant, it was agreed at a Meeting of Wardmasters, to recommend the Commissioners to appoint a Joint Committee of Commissioners and Wardmasters, "in order to examine into the working of the market dues, and to make such alterations as circumstances may require."

This announcement must be welcome to the Farmers, and we advise them to lose no time in submitting a proper statement of their grievances to the Commissioners, and to state the particular items which, in their opinion, require alteration.

THE KING OF HOLLAND.

His Majesty the King of the Netherlands left London on the 8th of August, on his return to his Kingdom, having been previously elevated to the rank of Field Marshal in the British Army.

FRANCE.

A destructive fire (supposed to be the work of an incendiary) had taken place in the Toulon Dockyard on the 1st of August, the progress of which had been arrested before reaching the arsenal;—a large amount of property had, however, been destroyed.

MEXICO AND THE UNITED STATES.

Notwithstanding the intervention of the French and English Governments, Texas has been at last admitted to the Union of the American States. The Government of Mexico has consequently issued a declaration of war, but which would appear to be mere idle clamour, considering the weakness of that government as compared with the United States; and unless France and England should join her in the vindication of her rights, there is no knowing what may become of her, in case she should venture to brave the battling propensities of Brother Jonathan.

GOVERNMENT APPOINTMENTS.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

Intelligence has just reached us of the death, by accident, of Mr. Jacob van de Venter, a young Dutch farmer living at Krantz Drift, on the Fish River, under the following deplorable circumstances:—It appears that on Saturday morning the 11th instant, his younger brother, whilst in the act of taking down a gun loaded with buckshot from one of the beams of the house, where the guns are usually placed for security, slipped from the box on which he was standing, and the cock striking against the beam as he fell, the gun was instantly discharged, the whole charge passing into the right groin of Jacob van de Venter, who was sitting at the distance of a few feet. After lingering in a state of dreadful suffering for 24 hours, he expired. He has left a widow and four young children.—C. F. Times, Oct. 16.

SOUTH WEST COAST.

The Schooner Swiftsure, Capt. Miller and four men left the said vessel on the morning of the 19th July, in lat. 21° 55 S., long. 14° E., for the purpose of landing to look for Ogden's Harbour, the schooner standing off and on shore. At noon the boat was seen on the beach and three men standing by her; but the captain was not among them. Soon after, the 3 men were observed to leave the boat and walk along the beach in a southerly direction. Mr. Sewell brought the schooner to anchor, and on the following morning he attempted to land, but was prevented by the heavy rollers. The schooner was then got underweigh and stood to the southward, about 4 leagues, in the hope of finding a landing place but without success. Mr. Sewell then went to Walwich Bay and applied to Mr. Dixon for natives to go in search of three men and the boat, (as he supposed the captain and one man had been drowned by the upsetting of the boat on the 19th July.) The natives were absent three days, and on their return stated, they had been across the Somerset River where they found two skulls, quite fresh; but no sign of either the boat or the men. The schooner then left Hollom's Bird Island, where the barque Jessie was taking in Guano. She also touched at Ichaboe, found there the Prompt, Westmoreland, Lima, Lima Packet, Tom Cringle, Lawsons, Leighton, and Mary Pope; the two latter having full cargoes.

At Angra Piquena there were several vessels, and at Possession Island, the Jona, William Gales, Charles, Xarifa, Vanguard, Vixen, Dream, Hartland, Rambler, Lady Flora Hastings, and Martha.

PROROGATION OF PARLIAMENT.

Parliament was prorogued on the 9th August by the Queen in person. The following is her Majesty's Speech on the occasion:—

"My Lords and Gentlemen,—

"I rejoice that the state of public business enables me to release you from further attendance in Parliament.

"In closing this laborious session, I must express to you my warm acknowledgment for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the consideration of many subjects deeply affecting the public welfare.

"I have given my cordial assent to the bills which you presented to me for remitting the duties on many articles of import, and for removing restrictions on the free application of capital and skill to certain branches of our manufactures.

"The reduction of taxation will necessarily cause an immediate loss of revenue; but I trust that its effect in stimulating commercial enterprise, and enlarging the means of consumption, will ultimately provide an ample compensation for any temporary sacrifice.

"I have witnessed with peculiar satisfaction the unremitting attention which you have bestowed on the measures recommended by me to your consideration at the commencement of the session for improving and extending the means of academical education in Ireland.

"You may rely upon my determination to carry those measures into execution in the manner best calculated to inspire confidence in the institutions which have received your sanction, and to give effect to your earnest desire to promote the welfare of that part of my dominions.

"From all foreign powers I continue to receive assurances of their friendly disposition towards this country.

"The convention which I have recently concluded with the King of the French for the more effectual suppression of the slave trade will, I trust, by establishing a cordial and active co-operation between the two powers, afford a better prospect than has hitherto existed to complete success in the attainment of an object for which this country has made so many sacrifices.

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons,—

"I thank you for the liberality with which you have voted the supplies for the service of the current year.

"My Lords and Gentlemen,—

"On your return to your several counties duties will devolve upon you scarcely less important than those from the performance of which I now relieve you.

"I feel assured that you will promote and confirm, by your influence and example, that spirit of loyalty and contentment which you will find generally prevalent throughout the country.

"In the discharge of all the functions intrusted to you for the public welfare you may confidently rely on my cordial support; and I implore the blessing of divine Providence on our united efforts to encourage the industry and increase the comforts of my people, and to inculcate those religious and more principles which are the surest foundation of our security and happiness."—Times, Aug. 11.

THE QUEEN'S VISIT TO GERMANY.

We have recently had occasion to remark that the visit of the Queen of England to Germany is hailed with the more satisfaction by a considerable party in that country, because our Sovereign is the most august representative of constitutional monarchy, and her personal dignity is enhanced in their eyes by the liberties of her people. In no part of the Prussian dominions does this feeling prevail with greater intensity than in the Rhenish province. The population of that portion of the kingdom amounts to more than two millions and a half of energetic and intelligent men, more recently annexed, and more imperfectly united to the state of Prussia, than any other district of that elongated territory which extends from Memel to Treves. In one respect, the Rhenish province has been justly compared to Ireland, from the energy of the Roman Catholic party, impatient of the control of a Protestant Court, and ready at times to sacrifice its permanent connexion with Northern Germany, which is based on a community of race, language, and interests, to the violence of its religious and popular feelings. But in addition to this strong cause of dissension, we must add the comparatively recent transfer of the province from the sway of the ancient electorates of Treves, Mayence, and Cologne, and subsequently the government of Imperial France, to the authority of the Cabinet of Berlin. The civil laws of France and the publicity of French procedure have been retained as one of the conditions of that transfer, and the consequence has been the propagation of a more democratic spirit, and a more active demand for constitutional government than has yet been manifested in the other provinces of Prussia, with the exception of the eastern extremities of the kingdom.—Times, Aug. 13.

ACCIDENT TO HER MAJESTY'S CROWN

On the occasion of the ceremonial proceedings in the House of Lords, to open, prorogue, or dissolve the Parliament, Her Majesty wears a tiara of diamonds, and is attended by an officer of state, with the crown on a cushion. Every visitor of the jewel-house in the Tower is aware of the novel arrangements and beauty of such crown, it having been to a considerable extent reconstructed for Her Majesty. The crown, on Saturday, was borne on a rich cushion, from the robing-room to the throne in the House of Lords, by the Duke of Argyll. His Grace is an elderly gentleman, and frequently evinced his anxiety regarding his forthcoming duty by perambulating the Royal gallery along which Her Majesty had to pass to the robing-room (the Lords' library) whence the Queen proceeded into the house. His Grace duly appeared in the procession. Her Majesty having delivered the prorogation speech, preparations were made for her quitting the house. The Duke of Argyll had to bear the crown from the presence of the Queen, it still remaining on the cushion; but, as the flooring of the throne-chair is raised above that of the house, he had to descend two steps. Receding from the Queen's presence without turning, his Grace appeared to have forgotten that there were two steps behind him; and consequently missing the first step, he stumbled, the crown rolled off the cushion, and in its fall several diamonds were knocked out. The consternation occasioned among the state officers and others about the throne may be imagined, though not easily described. The Duke's mal à propos position no doubt was severely enough felt by himself. The Queen soon perceived the disaster, and with great readiness and calmness, desired that the Duke would not concern himself on account of the accident, and hoped that his Grace was uninjured. As soon as search could be made, it was instituted; and the belief was that all the diamonds that had been knocked off in the fall were secured. As soon as the Queen quitted the throne the housekeeper appeared in front of it, thus taking charge of the position, and civilly prevented other parties from too nearly approaching it. Officials connected with the house were also placed within its immediate vicinity, further to guard against any improper searchings for diamonds, &c., that might be lost. The Queen having quitted the house, the event became the subject of still more earnest conversation. The Duke of Wellington remained in the long, or Royal gallery, by which the Queen had passed from the House of Lords, for some time explaining to various peeresses as they passed the untoward event, and the consoling address of Her Majesty to the Duke of Argyll. The Earl of Shaftesbury, Sir A. Clifford (Black Rod), &c. were quite as much engaged in the body of the house in explaining the circumstance.—Times, Aug. 11.

AMERICA.

DECLARATION OF WAR BY MEXICO.

Don Manuel Rincon, General of Division and Constitutional Governor of the department of Mexico, has published the following proclamation:—

The Minister of Foreign Affairs has communicated to me the following decree:—

"Jose Joaquin de Herrera, General of Division and President ad interim of the Mexican Republic, to the citizens thereof.

"Be it known, that the General Congress has decreed, and the Executive sanctioned the following:—

"The National Congress of the Mexican Republic, considering,—

"That the Congress of the United States of the North has, by a decree, which its Executive has sanctioned, resolved to incorporate the territory of Texas with the American Union:

"That this manner of appropriating to itself territories upon which other nations have rights introduces a monstrous novelty, endangering the peace of the world and violating the sovereignty of nations:

"That this usurpation, now consummated to the prejudice of Mexico, has been in insidious preparation for a long time; at the same time that the most cordial friendship was proclaimed, and that, on the part of this Republic, the existing treaties between it and those States were respected scrupulously and legally:

"That the said annexation of Texas to the United States tramples on the conservative principles of society, attacks all the rights that Mexico has to that territory, is an insult to her dignity as a sovereign nation, and threatens her independence and political existence:

"That the law of the United States, in reference to the annexation of Texas to the United States, does in no wise destroy the rights that Mexico has, and will enforce, upon that department:

"That the United States having trampled on the principles which served as a basis to the treaties of friendship, commerce, and navigation, and more especially to those of boundaries fixed with precision, even previous to 1832, they are considered as violated by that nation:

"And, finally, that the unjust spoliation of which they wish to make the Mexican nation the victim, gives her the clear right to use all her resources and power to resist, to the last moment, said annexation:

"It is decreed,—

"1. The Mexican nation calls upon all her children to the defence of her national independence, threatened by the usurpation of Texas, which is intended to be realized by the decree of annexation passed by the Congress, and sanctioned by the President of the United States of the North.

"2. In consequence, the Government will call to arms all the forces of the army, according to the authority granted it by the existing laws; and, for the preservation of public order, for the support of her institutions, and, in case of necessity, to serve as a reserve to the army, the Government, according to the powers given to it on the 9th of December, 1844, will raise the corps specified by said decree, under the name of 'Defenders of the Independence and of the Laws.'

"MIGUEL ARTISTAN, President of the Deputies.
"FRANCISCO CALDERON, President of the Senate.
"Approved, and ordered to be printed and published,
"JOSE JOAQUIN DE HERRERA.

CONTINENTAL RAILROADS.

In few parts of Europe does there appear more activity in the construction of railroads than in the Sardinian states. In a very short time the lines which will run from Genoa to Switzerland, through Lombardy and to France, and that which will connect Turin with Chambery, will be finished. The Swiss Government has acquiesced in the request of that of Bavaria for permission to continue a railroad across the cantons of Schaffhausen, Zurich, and Thurgovia, to the Lake of Constance.—Times.

MULTIPLICITY OF NAMES.

The following extract from a late number of the Times, reminds us of a certain anecdote about a poor spanish Don, who, on account of his numerous names, could obtain no lodging at a certain inn, whither he had taken refuge during a boisterous night:—

"King Louis Philipe had received a letter from the Emperor of Brazil, notifying to His Majesty the birth of the imperial Crown Prince, who had been named Alphonse-Peter-Chistian-Leopold-Philip-Eugene-Michael-Gabriel-Raphael-Gonzaguz."
