ELLA GOLDSTEIN.

Goldstein's concerts have been meeting with more and more enthusiasm as each is presented, and now this brilliant 17-year-old pianist in her final recital at the Colosseum Theatre Monday evening when her specially chosen programme will include:—

- Sonatas No. 4 and 7 ... Scarlatti
- "Adagio Favorsi" ... Mozart
- "Etudes Symphonique" ... Schumann
- "Sonata in B. Flat Minor" ... Chopin
- "Petrouchka" ... Stravinsky

ALHAMBRA.

"Trocadero," a tuneful, frolicsome musical, has answered a common charge leveled against Hollywood musicals. Critics frequently complain that musical plots are so flimsy and fantastic that they make the musical sequences seem like a collection of vaudeville skits. "Trocadero," which is the Alhambra's next attraction, escapes this charge by presenting the biography of Hollywood's most famous night-club as the framework of the biggest treat ever presented to popular music lovers.

ROYAL.

The new musical which opens at the Royal Theatre on Monday sparkles with gay tunes and light dancing and a plot taken from the headlines of your newspaper. Lucille Ball co-stars with Dick Powell in the leading romantic roles.
Meet the People," a shipyard revue, also features Bert Lahr, Virginia O'Brien, June Allyson, "Rags" Ragland, Spike Jones and his City Slickers.

by Pearl Buck, who knows China and the Chinese people the way few others do. The cast is headed by such an imposing array of entertainers as Katharine Hepburn, Walter Huston, Aline MacMahon, Akim Tamiroff, Turhan Bey and many other outstanding performers. It is the moving story of Ling Tan and his family, who work their peaceful rice fields. The time is 1937.
Suddenly the peace is shattered; the Japanese marauders are upon the pleasant, fertile valley.

ODEON and CURZON.

Edward G. Robinson, Lynn Bari and featured player Victor McLaglen are seen in the 20th Century-Fox production, "Tampico," a pre-release which is due to open at the Odeon, Sea Point, and Curzon, Wynberg, on Monday. This is a thrilling story of the unsung heroes of the oil tankers; men who face the perils of fire and water bringing petrol and oil to our fighting men.
The impressive supporting cast of the film includes Robert Bailey, Marc Lawrence, E. J.
Ballantine, Mona Maris and Tonio Selwart.

A Charming Children's Book.

A charming children's book recently published by the Central News Agency, Ltd., is "The Little Elephant Hunter" (and other stories), by Juliet Konig. The stories are written in such a way as to hold the interest of young children and the illustrations (most of them in colour) by Jeannette Fagin are striking and appealing.

Printed by the Cape Times, Ltd., it is an outstanding production in every way and should have a ready sale.
