THE PASSION PLAY

MONDAY, October 8th

Great British Production of Louis Golding's
"Best Seller"—

MR. EMMANUEL

COLOSSEUM.

Fontaine stars in the film version of "Jane Eyre" in the 20th Century-Fox's magnificent screening of the immortal Charlotte Bronte romance, which is shown at the Colosseum with four performances on Monday, 8th October. Cast opposite her is Orson Welles (who is remembered for his "Citizen Kane"). "Jane Eyre" has had one of the most remarkable film histories, achieving a record of more than 100 separate editions. Margaret O'Brien, Peggy Ann Garner and John Sutton are featured in the film's supporting cast.

ROYAL.

"Music for Millions," the M-G-M attraction which opens at the Royal on Monday, will provide a thorough-going enjoyment. Starring Margaret O'Brien with Jimmy Durante, Joe Iturbi and Allyson, the picture is a heart-warming comedy with music, in which the antics of Hugh O'Connell and Marie Wilson, the harmonica playing of Harry Adler and the serious acting support of Hunt and Harry Davenport, among others, provide top-notch movie entertainment.

ALHAMBRA.

"The Passion Play," the music for which was composed by Giuseppe Paganelli, opens its season at the Alhambra Theatre on Monday. There are two hundred and fifty in the cast and the play will be conducted by Joseph S.

On Monday, 8th October, the Alhambra will present "Mr. Emmanuel," based on the best-seller by Louis Golding. This British film stars Felix Aylmer and Greta Gynt.

PLAZA.

At the Plaza "Week-End at the Waldorf" will take cinema-goers on a forty-eight hour visit to the famous Waldorf Hotel in New York, with glimpses of its spacious lobby, Peacock Alley, Wedgwood Room and Starlight Roof. This is an adventure drama with a galaxy of screen stars taking part in it, among them Ginger Rogers, Walter Pidgeon, Lana Turner and Van Johnson. Through the revolving doors of the hotel passes a parade of people making one of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's greatest releases of the year.

J.N.F. Cabaret Dance.

A Cabaret Dance in aid of the J.N.F. will be held at the City Hall on Tuesday, 9th October. This is the first dance to be organised by the Bnoth Zion Association since the outbreak of war, and it promises to be a great social and financial success. Andre de Villiers' orchestra will provide the music and Mrs. H. J. Stodel has arranged a number of fascinating cabaret items. An excellent supper will be provided. Tickets, 25/- per couple, are obtainable from the Bnoth Zion Office, Balfour House, and from members of Branch Committees.
