United Zionist Party Chalutzim Settle for Hachsharah

THE chalutzim of the United Zionist Party who recently arrived in Ramat Jochanan (a settlement of Hever Hakvutzot) for their preliminary Hachsharah.

It was first intended that they should undergo their Hachsharah at a settlement of Haoved Hazioni, before launching out on their own. After consultation with Haoved Hazioni, and with their agreement, it was, however, decided to accept the invitation of Ramat Jochanan, mainly because this Kibbutz has a large settlement of chalutzim from the English-speaking countries, and allows full political freedom to its members.

ZIONIST ACTIVITIES IN PRETORIA

Last month Dr. Klompus addressed a small but enthusiastic gathering on Wizo work in Palestine. Her simple, but thorough, approach of the multifarious tasks facing Wizo at present, created a deep impression on the audience.

The chairman, Mrs. A. Levi, gave a comprehensive report of the recent Zionist conferences in Johannesburg, and outlined the scope of the work ahead.

The monthly meetings of the cultural group of the League proved most successful. Under the able guidance of the convener, Mrs. C. Laks, this section is making good progress. At the last meeting members heard a paper read by Mrs. Milner on the "Life of Dr. Herzl." Mrs. Klein read some suitable extracts from Herzl's "Judenstaat," and Miss Lazarus recited several poems.

The meeting took place at the home of Mrs. N. Zway who has just returned from America. Mrs. Mendelsohn, the chairman of the Arcadia Branch of the League, was in the chair, and Mrs. S. Weinstein proposed the vote of thanks.

WIZO MONTH

Following up Dr. Klompus' address a preliminary meeting to discuss details of Wizo Month was called. A number of attractive suggestions were made, and the following committee was elected: Joint conveners, Mesdames A. Levi and N. Zway; treasurer, Mrs. J. Slone; secretary, Mrs. H. Sherel; hostess, cards, Mrs. S. Voigt; fete, Mrs. L. Janower; publicity, Mesdames A. Kirsch and S. Weinstein.

JEANNE GAUTIER CONCERT

JEANNE GAUTIER, the gifted French violinist, confirmed her reputation as an outstanding interpreter of her country's composers when she gave the third of her recitals at the Empire Theatre last Sunday night. This was convincingly proved by her truly magnificent rendering of the beautiful Chausson's Poeme, in which all her brilliant qualities came to the fore.

This performance, however, did not detract from the rest of the programme of Latin and other works which were all handled in masterly fashion. The opening number, Brahms' Sonata in D Minor, played with Lionel Bowman at the piano, was enthusiastically received. There was also much beauty in the second half, when Mlle. Gautier rendered solos of a group of Spanish songs by Joaquin Nin, Saint Saens' "Havaneise" and Wieniawsky's "Airs Russes," while Lionel Bowman, as soloist, gave a most polished interpretation of Ravel's "Sonatine." It was a delightful evening's entertainment and was thoroughly enjoyed by the large audience.

Mlle. Gautier will give another concert in the City Hall on January 8, when she will appear with the S.A.B.C. Orchestra.
