The open doors of the Wesley Chapel, Cape Town.

The opening was on Saturday, and it was a great event for the community. The building was beautifully decorated, and the music was uplifting. The sermon was delivered by the Rev. Mr. Robinson, and it was a moving and inspirational speech.

The sale of castles, houses, and other real estate was advertised, and it attracted many visitors. The prices were reasonable, and there was much interest in the properties.

For private sale, an interest in the business was advertised. The details are available at the office of the Wesley Chapel.

Notice of removal, a P. I. M. sale, and a tailor and haberdashers' sale were also advertised.

The opening of the Wesley Chapel was a significant event, and it signaled the beginning of a new chapter in the community's history.
