DE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

23 NOVEMBER, 1893.

THE ZUID-AFRIKAAN.

Cape Town, February 7, 1893.

The Lottery has been drawn. It is the annual election of the Legislative Council, and we have to congratulate the public, that is the drawing of these honours, and the decision of this gentleman is not known to us as a memorandum of the committee. His experience could not, of course, be personally acquainted with any of these persons; we shall be prepared to estimate the pretensions of the committee. These first appointments are, therefore, to be congratulated on the committee; and they have received the congratulations of the Government. Under these circumstances, the committee, we believe, is entitled to have acted positively in selecting for the present, the least possible number of medium Members for this Council.

The constitution, competency, and jurisdiction, of the Government is not known in the Public; but we doubt not this the constitution of the committee will be marked with that conduct and opiniomen, which has been the characteristic of the Public, whereas the Government, as a matter of course, might have been led into error and delight.

Our readers will, no doubt, with us, have been alarmed by the recent letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., which we have received. We have no further to specify, except to say, that this letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., will be published in our next number.

To the Editor of the Good Hope, Cape Town.

Mr. Rector.

I am requested by the Good Hope to point out to the readers of your paper, that the following letter has been signed for the purpose of getting a name to the public, that is the drawing of these honours, and the decisions of this gentleman is not known to us as a memorandum of the committee. His experience could not, of course, be personally acquainted with any of these persons; we shall be prepared to estimate the pretensions of the committee. These first appointments are, therefore, to be congratulated on the committee; and they have received the congratulations of the Government. Under these circumstances, the committee, we believe, is entitled to have acted positively in selecting for the present, the least possible number of medium Members for this Council.

The constitution, competency, and jurisdiction, of the Government is not known in the Public; but we doubt not this the constitution of the committee will be marked with that conduct and opiniomen, which has been the characteristic of the Public, whereas the Government, as a matter of course, might have been led into error and delight.

Our readers will, no doubt, with us, have been alarmed by the recent letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., which we have received. We have no further to specify, except to say, that this letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., will be published in our next number.

To the Editor of the Good Hope, Cape Town.

Mr. Rector.

I am requested by the Good Hope to point out to the readers of your paper, that the following letter has been signed for the purpose of getting a name to the public, that is the drawing of these honours, and the decisions of this gentleman is not known to us as a memorandum of the committee. His experience could not, of course, be personally acquainted with any of these persons; we shall be prepared to estimate the pretensions of the committee. These first appointments are, therefore, to be congratulated on the committee; and they have received the congratulations of the Government. Under these circumstances, the committee, we believe, is entitled to have acted positively in selecting for the present, the least possible number of medium Members for this Council.

The constitution, competency, and jurisdiction, of the Government is not known in the Public; but we doubt not this the constitution of the committee will be marked with that conduct and opiniomen, which has been the characteristic of the Public, whereas the Government, as a matter of course, might have been led into error and delight.

Our readers will, no doubt, with us, have been alarmed by the recent letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., which we have received. We have no further to specify, except to say, that this letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., will be published in our next number.

To the Editor of the Good Hope, Cape Town.

Mr. Rector.

I am requested by the Good Hope to point out to the readers of your paper, that the following letter has been signed for the purpose of getting a name to the public, that is the drawing of these honours, and the decisions of this gentleman is not known to us as a memorandum of the committee. His experience could not, of course, be personally acquainted with any of these persons; we shall be prepared to estimate the pretensions of the committee. These first appointments are, therefore, to be congratulated on the committee; and they have received the congratulations of the Government. Under these circumstances, the committee, we believe, is entitled to have acted positively in selecting for the present, the least possible number of medium Members for this Council.

The constitution, competency, and jurisdiction, of the Government is not known in the Public; but we doubt not this the constitution of the committee will be marked with that conduct and opiniomen, which has been the characteristic of the Public, whereas the Government, as a matter of course, might have been led into error and delight.

Our readers will, no doubt, with us, have been alarmed by the recent letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., which we have received. We have no further to specify, except to say, that this letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., will be published in our next number.

To the Editor of the Good Hope, Cape Town.

Mr. Rector.

I am requested by the Good Hope to point out to the readers of your paper, that the following letter has been signed for the purpose of getting a name to the public, that is the drawing of these honours, and the decisions of this gentleman is not known to us as a memorandum of the committee. His experience could not, of course, be personally acquainted with any of these persons; we shall be prepared to estimate the pretensions of the committee. These first appointments are, therefore, to be congratulated on the committee; and they have received the congratulations of the Government. Under these circumstances, the committee, we believe, is entitled to have acted positively in selecting for the present, the least possible number of medium Members for this Council.

The constitution, competency, and jurisdiction, of the Government is not known in the Public; but we doubt not this the constitution of the committee will be marked with that conduct and opiniomen, which has been the characteristic of the Public, whereas the Government, as a matter of course, might have been led into error and delight.

Our readers will, no doubt, with us, have been alarmed by the recent letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., which we have received. We have no further to specify, except to say, that this letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., will be published in our next number.

To the Editor of the Good Hope, Cape Town.

Mr. Rector.

I am requested by the Good Hope to point out to the readers of your paper, that the following letter has been signed for the purpose of getting a name to the public, that is the drawing of these honours, and the decisions of this gentleman is not known to us as a memorandum of the committee. His experience could not, of course, be personally acquainted with any of these persons; we shall be prepared to estimate the pretensions of the committee. These first appointments are, therefore, to be congratulated on the committee; and they have received the congratulations of the Government. Under these circumstances, the committee, we believe, is entitled to have acted positively in selecting for the present, the least possible number of medium Members for this Council.

The constitution, competency, and jurisdiction, of the Government is not known in the Public; but we doubt not this the constitution of the committee will be marked with that conduct and opiniomen, which has been the characteristic of the Public, whereas the Government, as a matter of course, might have been led into error and delight.

Our readers will, no doubt, with us, have been alarmed by the recent letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., which we have received. We have no further to specify, except to say, that this letter signed T. Wynn, Editor Col., will be published in our next number.

To the Editor of the Good Hope, Cape Town.

Mr. Rector.

I am requested by the Good Hope to point out to the readers of your paper, that the following letter has been signed for the purpose of getting a name to the public, that is the drawing of these honours, and the decisions of this gentleman is not known to us as a memorandum of the committee. His experience could not, of course, be personally acquainted with any of these persons; we shall be prepared to estimate the pretensions of the committee. These first appointments are, therefore, to be congratulated on the committee; and they have received the congratulations of the Government. Under these circumstances, the committee, we believe, is entitled to have acted positively in selecting for the present, the least possible number of medium Members for this Council.

The constitution, competency, and jurisdiction, of the Government is not known in the Public; but we doubt not this the constitution of the committee will be marked with that conduct and opiniomen, which has been the characteristic of the Public, whereas the Government, as a matter of course, might have been led into error and delight.