To the Editor of "The South African."

LITORIES AND BELLOTTELLI.

RICHARD B. LEHNING.

Cape Town, June 14, 1864.

Dear Sir,—

Your letter received, in which you mention the adoption of a currency.

In my opinion, it is impossible for a small country such as ours to have its own currency, and to adopt a currency such as that of Great Britain is impossible, and I am compelled to think that the Government has no other choice than to adopt a currency such as that of Great Britain.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

RICHARD B. LEHNING.

Allowance to the Lutheran.

Sir,—Having read your letter of the 14th inst., I am of the opinion that the allowance to the Lutheran is not sufficient.

The amount of the allowance should be increased, and I would suggest that it be increased to the amount of 500l.

I am, Sir, your obedient servant,

J. M. SMITH.

The British Consul-General at.

We have the honor to inform you that the British Consul-General at Cape Town has been removed to another station.

The Consul-General has been replaced by Mr. W. T. Morgan, who has been appointed as the new Consul-General.

We are, Sir, your obedient servants,

RICHARD B. LEHNING.
