The Lake Isle of Innisfree

M. F. Yea, W. B. Yeats.

Soprano

Molto espressivo e Dangergio

Piano

I will arise and go now and go to In--nis-free

And a small ca-bin built there of clay and wattles made.

Dear roses will I have there, a I have for the honey bee

And live a ... lone in the bee loud glade

And I shall have some peace there for Drop the veil of the morning to where the crisp kek sang, midnight all a glimmer and noon a purple glow.
evening full of the light as the song

Cresc. allegro f. e. recall dim and go now for the way night and day If I hear lake water lapping with low sound by the shore

I stand on the road way for on the pavement gray
