My dear Albert

Your letter filled me with remorse. I hoped to have finished the scenes I had written for the Second Act and to send it you all complete but there were some awkward places which the spirit did not move me to bridge over so I put in hand the Scenario. There are various minor alterations in the plot and situations, which may liven up the action, but in the main it is the same. I hope that you will like it and will have time to ~~see~~ read it before your return.

Excuse my saying more but I think that there is just time to catch the post. Forgive the delay but it was unavoidable

With many apologies and kindest regards

Your remorseful
Soloman.
