

His Majesty's

Mr. Percy Hutchison concludes his season in Johannesburg this Saturday evening and next Monday evening will see the premiere of one of the finest pantomimes South Africa has seen. The piece chosen is the well known one of "Jack And The Beanstalk". No fewer than one hundred and fifty performers will take part in this production in which there will be a perfect fairy-land of some fourteen scenes. Mr. Phillip D. Levard who is the producer has already shown us what he can do not merely in musical comedy but, his last year's pantomime was it will be remember one of the best and this will undoubtedly eclipse it

The Standard.

Miss Freda Godfrey and her talented company open at the Standard Theatre on Monday next with that wonderful play of Sir James Barrie's which despite its age is still one of the greatest favourites we have had for years past namely, "Peter Pan". Miss Godfrey achieved a great success in the title role and her re-appearance will be welcomed by all. As an added attraction Mr Leonard Rayne has arranged that the incidental music shall be played by the band of the I.L.H. under Bandmaster Smith.

The New Bijou.

"Oliver Twist" is one of those stories that lend itself to an excellent screen version, and in the picture presented at the Bijou this week there is an entertainment of high order. All the scenes and incidents of the piece are faithfully portrayed, and Jackie Coogan, who plays the title role, is seen at his best. Others who take part in this film are such well known performers as Lou Chaney, George Siegman etc. The film is one which certainly should not be missed.

THE ORPHEUM
Heroes Of The Street.
AND VAUDEVILLE

The Empire

Only three changes are made in the Empire programme this week. That brilliant composer and pianist, Herschel Henlere, presents an entirely new programme and is deservedly popular, so much so that he is kept busy for at least an hour. Harry Claff pays a welcome return visit, and assisted by Miss Winnie Wager, gives a new scena entitled "An Arabian Night". Netta Rodney is a dancer of merit, whilst Soli plays the zyllophone in a brilliant manner. Of the old turns remaining there is of course Malcolm Scott, who, as the "Woman who Knows" keeps large audiences highly amused. Others who contribute to an all round programme are the "Three Neslos", the Shaws and Bradford & Walton. Included in next week's programme is Rene Riano, a famous comedienne from the Music Box Revue, whilst several other new items will be included.
