PLAZA KINEMA.

Harold Huth has been provided with an excellent supporting cast in "The Outsider," his first starring all-talking film, which is to be screened at the Plaza Super Kinema on Monday, 2nd November.

"The Outsider" is a splendid adaptation of one of the most successful British stage plays which made its debut a few years ago at the St. James's Theatre, enjoying a record run, and later being revived at the Lyric Theatre in London where it met with equal triumphs. The story is intensely human with a strong dramatic appeal, and in every respect makes for first-class screen entertainment.
