Harold Samuel

A BACH PIANO RECITAL.

Harold Samuel, the great exponent of Bach, will give a Bach recital under the auspices of the Johannesburg Musical Society in the Selborne Hall, at 8.15 p.m., on September 24.

Harold Samuel is one of the finest living players of Bach, and he will be remembered by music lovers for his performances in Johannesburg some years ago.

This will be his only appearance as a solo pianist, as he is here for the music examinations organised by the University of South Africa.

An Old Bible

His Honour the Administrator of South-West Africa, Dr. D. G. Conradie, has written to thank Mr. J. Maresky, of Kimberley, for the restoration of an old Dutch Bible, the original owner of which, according to the genealogy of the family, was Johannes Hendrik Conradie of Stellenbosch (1747-1800). The Bible is dated 1700 A.D., and was printed at Amsterdam. The print is ancient, and the paper hand made. Mr. J. Maresky had this Bible left to him by his father, the late Mr. A. Maresky, who purchased it at an auction sale in Kimberley some 24 years ago.

"CHU CHIN CHOW" AT THE COLOSSEUM

An elaborate production indeed is "Chu Chin Chow" at the Colosseum. It is surrounded with all Oriental show and beauty and is full of the variegated colour of the East. It is a super-production which is a credit to the Gaumont British company. The Colosseum orchestra continues to be a great attraction at this theatre.

watch beauty

There are Buren models that express the very spirit of to-day—simplicity of design continued with graceful beauty. The movements inside their cases are of Buren accuracy—that means of perfect accuracy. Let Buren be your watchword.
