THE OPERA HOUSE.

"Rose Marie."

"Rose Marie" comes to a close at the Opera House on Saturday. It is only regrettable that the season cannot be extended for this is one of the finest stage productions we have had in Cape Town. The booking for the three remaining performances, including to-morrow's matinee, is exceptionally heavy.

On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, for the first time in Cape Town, "The Mad Genius" will be screened. This so-called amazing film features John Barrymore and Boris Karloff. The story is unusual and moves relentlessly to a tremendous climax built about the powerful personality of the one man, Tsarakov. It is said that no film has been more awe-inspiring.

THE ALHAMBRA.

"The Sign of the Cross.

The first Cecil B. De Mille spectacle-drama since the advent of sound, "The Sign of the Cross," opens on Monday at the Alhambra Theatre.

He made the greatest spectacle of silent pictures, the memorable "Ten Commandments," and entered Hollywood lists anew determined to surpass even that achievement. When Mr. De Mille looked at the "rushes" of the new picture, he seemed content.

Fredric March, as the heroic prefect of old Rome, sacrificing wealth, position, even life for love of a Christian martyr-maid, is said to have the most virile role of his career. Elissa Landi, Claudette Colbert and Charles Laughton have the other principal roles.

THE ROYAL.

"Meet the Baron."

The famous voice of "Baron Munchausen," familiar to millions of radio fans, takes onto itself a corporeal being and for the first time in the history of the screen "The Baron" is seen as well as heard.

This occurs in "Meet the Baron," which commences on Monday at the Royal Theatre, in which Jack Pearl, the famous radio "Baron," makes his picture debut. He cavorts with Jimmy Durante, Zasu Pitts and others in hilarious adventure in a girls' college.

Capetown Orchestra Activities.

To-night and to-morrow at the City Hall, Miss Florence Montgomery is presenting "Omar Khayyam" in conjunction with the Cape Town Orchestra. A special matinee will be given to-morrow afternoon at 3 p.m. Artists appearing are Olive Spyker, Gladys Roper, Signor Rota, Nancy and Marjorie Watson-Morris, Erika Czollek, Capt. Ainslie, R.N. The scenery and costumes are really beautiful and a first-class performance is expected.

On Sunday evening we will have the pleasure of hearing Beatrice Willis (soprano) who has not appeared in public for over two years. Her voice is as beautiful as ever and her appearance is looked forward to. Orchestral items include Marche Hongroise (Berlioz) and Selection Rigoletto by Verdi.

There will not be a concert at the Sea Point Pavilion on Monday evening next owing to the uncertainty of the weather, but an open air concert will be given in the Municipal Gardens, The Avenue, on Wednesday evening at 8.15.

On Thursday evening next Aubrey Rainier, the brilliant boy 'cellist will appear with the Orchestra, when he will perform the Variations for 'cello and orchestra (Boellman). The Symphony is Zlabounov's No. 7.
