Adelaide Newman at the City Hall.

Prolonged applause greeted Adelaide Newman after her superb playing of the Rimsky-Korsakov piano concerto in C sharp minor on Thursday night, April 3rd, with the Cape Town Orchestra. Her playing aroused much enthusiasm, and this is due to the fact that it combines temperament with exactitude.

The concerto is a monumental work, both in structure, and in its technical difficulties, and in spite of immense concentration which was clearly needed from the soloist, the rendering had the effortlessness of great artistry.

For brilliancy of touch, masterfulness of interpretation and the other attributes which go to making a truly great performance, Adelaide Newman's playing has seldom been equalled in Cape Town.

Miss Newman again received a great ovation when she appeared at last Sunday night's concert with the Municipal Orchestra in a group of three piano solos which were brilliantly played.

Richard Greene head a fine cast. Most of "Kentucky" was filmed in the heart of the "Blue-grass" State, and the picture is a revelation of the beauty of the land which is the home of America's best thoroughbred horses. The outbreak of the Civil War in America forms the prologue to the story. Honours for exceptionally fine acting must go to Walter Brennan, cast in the role of Loretta's die-hard uncle.

PLAZA.

"Comrade X," which opens at the Plaza on Saturday, is one of the cheeriest adventure stories ever brought to the screen, and will certainly prove one of the highlights of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's "brighter entertainment" pictures. The picture is said to be even funnier than "Ninotchka." The stars are Clark Gable and Hedy Lamarr. Nobody can "put over" a dashing adventure role better than Gable and in this latest picture he has a part which suits him down to the ground. Miss Lamarr wins new laurels in a comedy role. Felix Bressart and Sig Rumann are also in the cast. There will be a midnight show of "Comrade X" on Sunday night; the performance will begin at 12.15 a.m.

"Ich Will Sein a Mamme."

The Yiddish talkie "Ich will Sein a Mamme" showing at the Majestic on Tuesday, April 15, contains a story full of human interest, and is excellently produced.

Leo Fuchs, Hannah Hollander and the other artists all give fine performances, while the singing of Cantor Leibale Waldman is of outstanding quality.
