THE BEST FILM OF 1942!

So say 100 Critics and 200 Newspapers and Magazines!

KINGS ROW

A Remarkable Film adapted from the unusual "best seller" by Henry Bellamann.
Its remarkable theme has much that reminds us of those outstanding film successes "Good-bye Mr. Chips" and "Rebecca."

Odeon and Curzon

"Song of the Islands," featuring Betty Grable and Vic Mature, is 20th Century-Fox's latest musical adventure into the lazy, carefree life of the South Seas. This film in Technicolor, which offers practically everything in the way of top screen entertainment, will be shown simultaneously at the Odeon Theatre, Sea Point, and Curzon Theatre, Wynberg, at the Sunday midnight preview premiere.

ROYAL.

M.G.M.'s "Smilin' Through," starring Jeanette MacDonald and Brian Aherne, with Gene Raymond, opens at the Royal Theatre on Monday. Nine ballads are interpreted by Miss MacDonald, who, photographed in Technicolor in the romantic setting of old England, was never seen to better advantage.

Music Scholarship.

The music scholarship of the value of £150 a year for three years at an approved

South Africa, has been awarded to Hilda
