Concert in Aid of Palestine Orchestra.

Tamara Samsanov will be one of the artists who will take part in the "Evening of Music, Drama and Ballet" which Mr. Boris Canin is organising at the Zionist Hall on Saturday evening, the 24th October, in aid of the Palestine Orchestra.

This fine actress is on her way back to Palestine to join the famous Habimah Players. Her contributions to this programme will include an excerpt in Hebrew from the 37th Chapter of Ezekiel, "The Valley of Dry Bones," and the letter scene from Shakespeare's "Macbeth."

Elsie Hall will play a Chopin group and with Ellie Marx the Cesar Franck sonata for violin and piano. Jenny Sonnenberg's rich contralto will be heard to advantage in a Handel aria and the Cape Town Ballet Club will present two short ballets to music by Strauss and Bach.

All these well-known artists have freely offered their services to help this fine cause. It is hoped that every seat in the Zionist Hall will be filled. Booking is at Darters and the plans are filling rapidly.

The Jewish Institute for the Blind, Jerusalem.

Through the efforts of Mr. B. Peires, 2, Dawlish Flats, De Waal Drive, Cape Town, the sum of £31 has been forwarded to Chief Rabbi Dr. Isaac Herzog, Jerusalem, towards the funds of the above Institution.

ROYAL.

A novel combination of factual army life and fictional adventure with Wallace Beery as the star are feature of "The Bugle Sounds" which opens at the Royal on Monday. The picture was filmed with the co-operation of the U.S.A. War Department. A logical drama of a leather-faced sergeant of cavalry has been woven into the action of the regular army. There are roaring tanks and droning planes, together with thousands of regular army men who went under camera fire for the picture. Appearing in the supporting cast are Marjorie Main, Lewis Stone, Donna Reed and William Lundigan.

Odeon and Curzon

Lavishly prepared, carefully planned and magnificently executed, "How Green Was My Valley," which will open shortly simultaneously at the Odeon Theatre, Sea Point, and the Curzon Theatre, Wynberg, emerges as a picture so true and beautiful, that no matter what follows, it will continue to shine forth as one of Hollywood's truly great achievements. "How Green Was My Valley" has captured with honesty and strength all the wonderful characterisation of the Llewellyn novel. This 20th Century-Fox production features Walter Pidgeon, Maureen O'Hara, Donald Crisp, Anna Lee, little Roddy McDowall, John Loder, Sara Allgood, Barry Fitzgerald, Patric Knowies and the Welsh Singers.
