ELLA GOLDSTEIN.

Goldstein, who will give an orchestral conwith the Cape Town Orchestra conducted by Wm. J. Pickerill, at the Colosseum on Mon-evening, has proved a great success with Town music-lovers, and this appearance add to her popularity. The Rachmaninov No. 2 in C Minor for piano and or-has been specially chosen for this con-while the other orchestral items will include
"La Forza del Destino" (Verdi), "Sym-in D Minor" (Schuman), and "Bolero"

ALHAMBRA.

du Maurier's story "Rebecca," famous as a novel and a film, now comes to the stage as a play which will be presented for a new season—commencing Thursday, 18th January, at the Alhambra Theatre. Rene Ahren-son, producing the play under the direction of Consolidated Theatres, Ltd. She has her successes to her credit, and her experience and insight should make "Rebecca" a memorable show. No expense is to be spared in this production, the cast of which has been chosen from Johannesburg, Durban and Cape Town.
Leading parts will be taken by Bruce Mere-Lorraine Ellis and Violet Dunlop, with Mary Marais, Mary Kay, Reg Wilkinson, Norman Inskip and Dr. Kelly. Norman Hackforth (formerly Noel Coward's accompanist) is also featured in the cast.

ODEON and CURZON.

Based on the great amphibious action that keyed the record-breaking operations on the coast of France, "Candlelight in Algeria," the amazing story behind the Allied invasion of North Africa, is scheduled to open on Monday, 15th January, at the Odeon and Curzon Theatres.
Torn from the pages of one of the most dramatic exploits of this war, the film fills the screen with thrills, intrigue, romance and adventure. The action ranges from the brilliant gaiety of Algeria, through the Casbah, to a lonely seaside villa that was to become a world-famous rendezvous.
The film stars James Mason and Clara Lehmann.

Jerusalem.
A loan of £P20,000 has been approved by the Palestine Government for public works construction in Petah Tikvah. It is intended to spend the loan on the construction of a new school, £P13,500; roads, £P4,000; a health clinic, £P1,500; and the expropriation of lands for public purposes.
