ODEON and CURZON

"Dark Waters" at the Odeon and Curzon con- designates the film story. Dark waters, ing sands and sinisterness predominates. Oberon is the young girl who is the central water in the story which reveals the mur- machinations of Thomas Mitchell whose it is to drive the heroine to madness and Money, of course, is the motive driving and a pseudo aunt and uncle to depths of It is an eerie theme, and most of the is enacted in the shadows, which add to its seriousness. Franchot Tone comes to the and the denouement is a happy one.

ALHAMBRA.

The public demand for the film "Western Ap- proaches" has been so great that special arrange- ments have been made for its reshewing at the Alhambra for a four-day season, commencing Mon- day. A British film in technicolour, it tells the story of 24 survivors of a torpedoed merchantman who spent 14 days in a lifeboat in the Atlantic. In connection with its presentation a special stage production has been arranged.

PLAZA.

You will meet the tops in entertainment when you see "Meet Me in St. Louis," starring Judy, Gar- land and Margaret O'Brien, the next attraction at the Plaza Theatre. Produced in technicolour by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, it is the grandest kind of film the screen has ever produced.

COLOSSEUM.

A medley of Russian folk songs are sung in this picture by Deanna Durbin in her new Universal picture, "His Butler's Sister," which comes to the Colosseum to-morrow. Deanna sings three numbers in the picture, two of them popular songs, "When You're Away" and "In the Spirit of the Moment."

ROYAL.

"Kismet," at the Royal, ensures fun, drama and spectacle. In glorious technicolour and with superb cast headed by Ronald Colman and Marlene Dietrich, it is one of the most delightful films ever told.

Concert in aid of Palestine Soldiers' Comforts Fund

A very successful concert was held under the auspices of the Zionist Socialist Party of Cape Town on 1st May. The Major Zionist Hall was crowded and a very appreciative audience repeatedly applauded the artists.

The Jewish Choir organised by the Zionist Socialist Party, under the baton of Mr. W. Sher, made its first appearance in Cape Town. It sang with great effect, ably directed by Mr. Sher, a number of popular Hebrew and Jewish melodies, and particularly excelled itself in "Dudele" with Cantor M. Katzin as the soloist and Miss R. Rabinowitz at the piano.

Miss Hedy Haas distinguished herself in her pictures and impersonations of Jewish life in the old home. Cantor M. Katzin, accompanied by Mrs. Katzin, sang a number of songs with considerable effect and Mr. R. Koorland and Walter Morgan contributed violin solos and accordion items respectively. Mr. George Laden read in his usual inimitable style a composition of his own creation, "If I were Stalin!"

Pupils of Miss R. Vilensky's School of Dancing contributed a number of stirring Russian dances. Miss R. Rabinowitz officiated at the piano and also rendered a piano solo with her usual brilliance. The Palestine Soldiers' Comforts Fund will benefit considerably as a result of this very fine concert.
