RUTH ROME

Ruth Rome, Cape Town's very promising young soprano whose previous concerts with the Cape Town Orchestra have earned her warm praise for outstanding performances, will give a recital at the Savoy Theatre, Rosebank, on Monday, August 13th. This young artist has already performed such great works with the Orchestra as Beethoven Piano Concerto in G Major, the Chopin Piano Concerto, the Grieg Piano Concerto in A Minor, and gave the first performance in this country of the Alec Rowley Concerto in D. Her presentation at the Savoy Theatre, Ruth has selected compositions by Bach-Busoni, Chopin, Debussy, Albeniz and Liszt.

COLOSSEUM.

Columbia's technicolour picture, "A Song to Remember," which has had sensational receptions all over the world, will continue to be shown next week. Based on the life of Frederic Chopin, the film features 18 of this composer's famous pieces. The music includes everything popular the composer ever composed from the "Minute Waltz" to the Mazurkas, "Fantasie Impromptu" to the Polonaises.

PLAZA.

The picture of "Dorian Gray" is in its second week at the Plaza. This was to be expected for the difference of opinion all discriminating picture-goers will probably agree that the Wilde story has been transferred to the screen with a generous touch of artistry and brilliance. The cast is excellent and the performance of George Sanders is in itself worth going a long way to see.

"Blonde Fever" will follow the "Dorian Gray" picture. Adapted from the stage hit "Delilah," Felix Bressart takes the leading role and is supported by Mary Astor, Philip Dorn and Gloria Grahame.

ROYAL.

Ann Sothorn, more dynamic than ever, appears in "Maisie Goes to Reno" starting at the Royal on Monday. Another of the popular Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer "Maisie" series, it has been voted the best in the group. John Hodiak heads a very strong cast which includes Tom Drake, Paul Cavanagh, Donald Meek and Chick Chandler.
