RUTH ROME

A special programme of music and ballet is to be held at the Savoy Theatre on Monday evening features Cape Town's brilliant young singer Ruth Rome, the daughter of Cantor Boris Rome. Aged 18 years, Miss Rome has already performed on several occasions with the Cape Town Municipal Orchestra since she was 11, and has also been on many broadcasts. For her recital on Monday evening Miss Rome has chosen to play "Chaconne in D minor" (Bach-Busoni), "Arabesque" (Schuman), "Fantasie Impromptu" and Nocturne in C minor (Chopin), "Reflections in the Water" (Debussy), "Sequidillas" (Albeniz) and "La Leggiera" (Liszt). The first hour of this musical programme will be devoted to specially selected films starring world celebrity artists such as Greta Garbo, Dilling (harist), the Coolidge String Quartet and Emanuel Feuermann (cellist). The second featurette is "Carnival of Rhythm," a Warner Bros. production in Technicolor starring Betty Hutton and her troupe.

ROYAL.

Laurel and Oliver Hardy, with the assistance of a fine comedy cast including Mary Boland, will provide plenty of laughs in "Nothing But Trouble" which opens at the Royal on Monday. The two comedian play a butler-chef team and their efforts to get them, as the title suggests, nothing but trouble. They wend their way through as hilarious series of episodes as Hollywood ever provided.
There are many mirthful scenes and "Nothing But Trouble" is guaranteed to drive all cares away.

PLAZA.

Under and refreshingly simple romantic drama is offered at the Plaza in the film "The Clock." It has Judy Garland and Robert Walker in the leading parts as a lovely girl and a lonely man on a two-day furlough who meet by chance at a railway station. The love affair of this very lovely pair is conducted with a disarming charm and bewilderment. The atmosphere of New York is conveyed by way of a kind of Cook's tour and each vista is enhanced by the voices of cosmopolitan life in a big city.
