Obituary.

CANTOR S. STEINBERG.

The death has occurred in Johannesburg after a prolonged illness, of one of the oldest and best known chazanim in South Africa in the person of Cantor Simchah Steinberg. For a period of 17 years, until his retirement some two years ago, he was cantor of the Berea Hebrew Congregation.

Born in Lithuania, he received his first training in "chazanoth" from the famous Cantor Rabinowitz, of Kovno, and later studied at the Odessa Conservatoire under the equally well-known Cantor Minkovsky.

After holding appointments at Dublin and Liverpool, he came to South Africa some 33 years ago as chazan of the Fox Street Beth Hamedrash. He also served with the Roeland Street Synagogue, Cape Town, before accepting a call from the Berea Hebrew Congregation.

He was endowed with great musical ability and about 15 years ago composed his own "Sidur," which he published in the form of a book, with a foreword by Mr. Kirby, Professor of Music at the Witwatersrand University, and the late Dr. J. L. Landau. This work was well received not only in South Africa but also abroad.

About six years ago he visited Eretz Israel and had the honour of conducting services at Tel Aviv's leading synagogue.

He was a man of great erudition and culture and identified himself with every phase of Jewish life in Johannesburg. He was fond of art and possessed a fine collection of antiques.

The funeral, which took place at the Brixton Cemetery, was largely attended. Cantor I. Alter conducted the service, and fitting tribute was paid to the deceased by Rabbi I. Kossowsky, Rabbi A. M. Gervis and Rev. O. Altshuler.

Cantor Steinberg was predeceased by his wife in June of last year, and he is survived by a son and daughter-in-law in Johannesburg, and a daughter and son-in-law in London.

Late Dr. David Katz.

At a meeting of the Cape Hospital Board on Wednesday, 24th October, Captain W. D. Hare, who presided, referred to the death on October 1st of Dr. David Katz, who held appointments as honorary ophthalmic surgeon at Groote Schuur Hospital and at the Woodstock and False Bay hospitals for many years. Dr. Katz had given most devoted and self-sacrificing service in the cause of the sick poor.

A motion of sympathy with his bereaved relatives was passed.
