Opera Season at Alhambra.

No season of opera in Cape Town has aroused quite so much advance interest as this year's which opens at the Alhambra Theatre on Saturday, 11th May. The reason is, firstly, that six operas will be performed, and secondly, the engagement of singers from London to strengthen the company. Redvers Llewellyn and Pauline Maunder will bring fresh personalities on to the stage, and there will be a specially augmented orchestra under the direction of Mr. John Connell and Mr. Herman Herz.

The season will open with "Rigoletto" and this will again be performed on 17th and 21st May. "Tosca" will be presented on 13th and 20th May. The third opera, "La Traviata," will have three performances—on 14th, 18th and 22nd May. "Pagliacci" and "Cavalleria Rusticana" will be presented at the same performances on 15th May and at a matinee on 18th May. "Madame Butterfly" is the sixth opera to be performed and this will be given on 16th May and at the matinee on 22nd May.

Other well-known opera personalities in the casts are: Albina Bini, Kristian Halvorsen, Dirk Lourens, Leslie Buckingham, Jean Gluckman, Lilla Emdin, Frank Butler, Chris Lessing, Hamilton Evans, Paddy Mitchell, Danie van den Heever, Violet Turnbull, Lloyd Strauss-Smith, John Craze, Glanville Davies, Gerald Cassen and Christina Greig.

PLAZA.

Clark Gable teams for the first time with Greer Garson in "Adventure," a red-blooded tale of a roving, reckless merchant marine bo'sun, who meets the girl of his dreams while on a big shore leave in San Francisco. The new picture, which is showing at the Plaza Theatre, marks Gable's return to the screen after three and a half years in the Air Corps. It boasts an outstanding cast, including Joan Blondell and Thomas Mitchell

CORRECTION.

In the article contained in a recent issue of this paper in connection with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lourie's generous gift for a Jewish Cultural Centre in Jerusalem, it was incorrectly stated that Mrs. R. Lourie was the first president of the Johannesburg Ladies' Zionist Association in 1924. Mrs. Lourie was actually the first president of the Johannesburg Ladies' Zionist Association in 1904, a year before the first South African Zionist Conference was held in the Masonic Hall, Johannesburg, in 1905.
