After a long period of intensive study in Johannesburg under the famous pianist Adolph Hallis, Ruth Rome is now ready to leave Cape Town for further studies overseas. Prior to her departure Ruth will give a Farewell Benefit Concert in conjunction with the Cape Town Municipal Orchestra at the City Hall on Tuesday, 20th May, and music lovers can look forward with great interest to hearing this gifted young artiste once again after her recent successful performance.

The sponsors for this concert are Mr. Jack Stodel, Mr. Ben Wilder and Mrs. J. M. Weinreich and they expect with great confidence the whole-hearted support of the community to give this brilliant pianiste a magnificent send-off by filling the City Hall to its utmost capacity.

Ruth has shown a keen interest in the activities of her father for the Children and Youth Aliyah Fund, and as a gesture is devoting a portion of the proceeds of her concert to this most deserving cause.
