

Zionist Youth Activities

The Cape Town Jewish Youth Club held a Film Evening at its premises on Sunday evening, the 14th inst. Over 70 people attended and the programme was of a most interesting and varied description. The feature film was Shakespeare's "As You Like It," with Laurence Olivier and Elizabeth Bergner. The evening proved an outstanding success from the point of view of both social and cultural value. The Executive is to be congratulated on this effort.

Habonim (Western Province).—Again the movement in the Cape bids Chazak to two chaverim who are leaving for Kibbutz Habonim, the Hachsharah meshek at Northcliffe, Johannesburg. They are Simon Roberts of Chavurah Mizpah (Observatory) and Sigi Stein from Chavurah Matityahu (Sea Point). The movement in the Cape will bid Chazak to them at an indoor Campfire and Concert to be held this Saturday night at 8.15 p.m. at the Maitland Talmud Torah Hall. Pelugah Ir-Dan are organising this function, so don't forget to be at the Maitland Talmud Torah Hall this Saturday night. Proceeds are for the Hachsharah lorry.

Owing to pressure on space some "ZIONIST YOUTH ACTIVITIES" have been held over until next week.

It was in September, 1944, that the men of the First British Airborne Division made their heroic stand at Arnhem. One year later survivors returned to the actual battlefield amid the ruins of Arnhem, truthfully to re-enact and record for all time this most gallant action in which they had gained the admiration even of the enemy. This film is a tribute to every man who fought at Arnhem and an everlasting memorial to those who gave their lives—
