Adrina Otero Recitals.

Adrina Otero, the well-known Spanish dancer, who left such a strong impression on the Cape Town public at her one and only recital last May, will give farewell recitals on Friday and Saturday, 6th and 7th February, at the Hofmeyr Hall at 8.30 p.m., also a special matinee for the schools on Saturday, 7th February, at 2.30 p.m.

She will repeat those dances which were best loved, namely: "Mazurka" (or the "Love Letter") and that comic little peasant number called "Campechina." She will introduce this time six new dances, all composed during her stay in Cape Town. These will be "La Solterona," a study of a coquettish and rather kittenish old maid of Madrid of 1900; "Tanguillo" (or "Little Tango"), the graceful and voluptuous tango of the gypsies of Cadiz, with its long-tailed frilly costume; "Sacromonte," by the great Spanish composer Turina, a Spanish-Moorish dance with a many-jingled tambourine. The other dances, varied and unusual in design and atmosphere, are to the music of Albeniz, Granados, Chavarri, Breton and Bizet.

A few weeks after these farewell recitals Miss Otero leaves on a four-months' recital tour of South America: Rio, Buenos Aires, Montevideo, Peru, Chile, Mexico, etc.

She has successfully toured the Union, giving five recitals in Johannesburg, three in Port Elizabeth, two each in Kimberley and Bloemfontein, one in Worcester and twelve in Lourenco Marques.

Assisting her at the farewell recitals will be Emilio Borgonova and Lulu Visser.

Emilio Borgonovo is a young Argentine pianist who was soloist with the Cape Town Municipal Orchestra three weeks ago and who scored a great success with his introduction of modern Argentine piano works, new to this country. He will accompany the dancer and also play some outstanding works of Albeniz, de Falla, Granados, etc., and also Argentine composers.

Lulu Visser is one of Cape Town's leading young dancers, who danced opposite Alexis Rassine in "Spectre of the Rose" recently at the City Hall. She will dance a "Farruca" especially composed for her by Miss Otero, and will dance with her a gay, colourful, beautifully costumed Spanish gypsy, "Bulerias."

Bratislava. The Association of Racial Persecutees of Bratislava has submitted a complaint to the Czechoslovak War Ministry charging that discrimination against Jews exists within the machinery set up by the Government for granting special certificates to former partisans and ex-concentration camp prisoners.

A similar charge has been raised by the Bratislava newspaper "Tribuna," which asserts that the Office of the Legions, a local department of the War Ministry, discriminates against Jews. The certificates issued by the Ministry entitle bearers to various preferences in their dealings with the Government.—J.T.A.
