Broth Zion Association.

A members' meeting of the Green Point-Three Anchor Bay branch took place on Thursday morning, 2nd inst., at the residence of Mrs. R. Kinderlerer. The guest speaker was Miss Sally Burstein, organiser of the S.A. Women's Zionist Council, who related some of her experiences as a welfare officer in D.P. camps in Austr.a.

Miss Burstein ably answered questions at the conclusion of her talk, and an informative discussion followed.

Mrs. Harriet Levin, who presided, reported on several functions which had been held and were being contemplated by the branch. The Bring-and-Buy Sale, under the convenorship of Mesdames R. Kinderlerer and E. Roberts, which had taken place at the residence of Mrs. Kinderlerer on August 20, had raised £22 10s. The branch is now engaged in activities for its stalls at the Sea Point Israeli Fete to be held in November.

The W.I.Z.O. Sewing Group is meeting this month at the residence of Mrs. Nina Arkin, K2 Alma Court, Green Point.

A very large gathering attended the members' meeting of the Fresnaye branch held at the residence of Mrs. E. Daitsh, Avenue Normandie, Fresnaye.

Mrs. Yettie Segal was in the chair and at the outset expressed sorrow at the death of Dr. A. Birnbaum and paid a tribute to his memory. The meeting rose as a mark of respect.

Mrs. Segal warmly welcomed the speakers. She outlined the activities of the branch for the next few months.

Mrs. Rose Hurwitz gave a comprehensive news review. Mrs. M. Bloch, accompanied by Mrs. G. Saxe, delighted the gathering with two songs. The meeting was in the form of a symposium on "Life in Palestine." Mrs. Atara Resnekov spoke on "From the Viewpoint of a Sabra" (a native of Palestine). Mrs. Polly Reznik gave a vivid picture of her personal experiences among the refugees, her talk being on "Work Among Pletim." Lastly, Mrs. Rhoda Lipkin gave a most interesting informal talk on "Making One's Home in Jerusalem."

Mrs. R. Friedlander proposed a hearty vote of thanks to the speakers to the artists and to Mrs. Daitsh for her hospitality.

At a cultural afternoon held at the residence of Mrs. S. Arelisky, 20, Bradwell Road, Vredehoek, on Tuesday, August 24, the Vredehoek Combined Ladies' Societies were addressed by Miss Sally Burstein. She spoke informally on the political implications of Statehood and touched briefly on her experiences in the Austrian D.P. camps. Lively discussion ensued upon her address. The sentiments of all her listeners was expressed in the vote of thanks.

Muizenberg Talmudical Study Society.

The annual general meeting was held at the Talmud Torah Hall, Wherry Road, on Sunday, August 28. At the outset the chairman, Mr. B. P. Phillips, expressed his sorrow at the great loss Cape Jewish institutions have sustained in the death of Dr. A. Birnbaum.

The following were elected to the executive: Mr. B. P. Phillips, chairman; Mr. I. Litvin, vice-chairman; Mr. S. Schrire, hon. treasurer; Mr. J. Lehrman, hon. secretary.

It was unanimously agreed that out of the funds £50 be donated to the Israeli United Appeal.

Scopus Club.

After three consecutive cultural meetings the Scopus Club on August 29 held an informal "come-as-you-like" dance. A very large crowd attended, with the result that the doors had to be closed early in the Social & Personal.

Chief Rabbi Prof. I. Abrahams has accepted an invitation to lay the foundation-stone of the New Hebrew School and Hall of the Queenstown Hebrew Congregation on September 14. He will also be addressing the community on the occasion of his pastoral visit.

Dr. and Mrs. R. Resnekov returned to Cape Town by air on Tuesday after an absence of a year, during which Dr. Resnekov took post-graduate courses at London, Edinburgh and Dublin. They are staying at the Hotel Bordeaux, Sea Point, for a few weeks until they return to their home at Rondebosch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Stodel left in the Tegelberg on Tuesday on a seven weeks' trip to South America.

Peltours, Johannesburg, advise that the following passengers have left recently for Israel: Advocate H. M. Bloch, Mr. M. Ross, Mr. W. Heller and Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Kirsch.

The engagement is announced of Sarah, youngest daughter of Mrs. and the late Mr. D. Saks, of Pretoria, and Dr. Issy Berelowitz, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. M. Berelowitz, Menorah, Huguonet Avenue, Oranjezicht.

Mr. and Mrs. P. Marks have returned from a visit to England, the Continent and the United States. Mrs. Marks also paid a visit to Israel.

Kolnik - Mofsowitz.

The marriage took place on Sunday, 5th September, at the Roeland Street Synagogue of Ray, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Mofsowitz, and Tetka, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Kolnik. Cantor J. Passman and Rabbi J. Weinberg officiated. The bestman was Mr. Kopul Lipschitz and the poleholders Messrs. Issy Savitz, Jack Levine, Barry Kaplan and Sydney Goldstein. The matron-of-honour was the bride's sister, Mrs. Miriam Goldstein, and the bridesmaids were Misses Meta Mofsowitz, Mary Swerling and Alice Goldstein.

A Dinner was subsequently held in the Zionist Hall. Mr. S. M. Levin presided. The toasts of Israel and of the bride and bridegroom were proposed by the Chairman. Rabbi M. Morgenstern, supported by Mr. Z. Avin, and Mr. Z. Dobrin proposed the toast of the unterfuhrers. The bridegroom suitably responded. The bestman thanked the matron-of-honour and the bridesmaids for their very able assistance.

Rabbi Dr. M. Kossowsky.

At a Kinus of the world movement of Mizrahi and Hapoel Hamizrachi held in Tel Aviv, Rabbi Dr M. Kossowsky, Chairman of S.A. Mizrahi, was elected a member of the Executive of Mercaz Olami of Mizrahi.

The Scopus Club is extending so rapidly that larger premises are urgently required to enable it to fulfil its full programme adequately, and it would be appreciated if anybody who knows of suitable premises which the club could rent, either on specific evenings each week or permanently, would communicate with the secretary at P.O. Box 2148, Cape Town. Such person would be doing the younger members of Cape Town Jewry a very great service.
