Braaivleis and Dance: Parow-Bellville I.U.A. group has won for itself the reputation of making an outstanding success of any function it arranges. The Braaivleis and Dance that will take place on Saturday evening, 11th inst., on the farm of Mr. E. T. Sacks, "Stellengift," Klapmuts, promises to be an outstanding event. Alf Wylie's Coon Band will provide the music in the large and airy barn. Drinks will be procurable and chops and sausages will be served. Tickets at 7/6 each are on sale.

Durbanville held a highly successful Bazaar at their Town Hall on 1st inst. The stalls were well stocked with a large variety of articles and business was brisk all afternoon. The conveners are to be congratulated on a splendid effort.

Wynberg has the admiration of all for the quiet and diligent manner in which they are carrying out a varied programme of activities for I.U.A. The Bnoth Zion Association recently set an entirely new standard of attainment with their Rummage Sale. The Union of Jewish Women are holding a Flower Demonstration on Tuesday, 14th inst., at 3 p.m. at the residence of Mrs. Garvin, "The Quarry," Primrose Avenue, Wynberg. There will be tea and music. Admission charge is 5/- and all interested are cordially invited to attend.

State of Israel Ball, organised by the Fresnaye branch of the Bnoth Zion Association, will take place at the Temple Israel Hall on Wednesday evening, 15th inst. Vic Davis and his Orchestra will be in attendance and only a limited number of tickets are being sold as the conveners wish to assure the comfort and enjoyment of all the dancers. Tickets, £2/2/- double, may be obtained from members of the Committee, and tables are to be reserved by phoning 4-5028.

Woodstock-Salt River held a highly successful Dance at the Communal Hall last Saturday night. Lilli Anderson gave a number of interesting and delightful Yiddish and Hebrew songs that were much appreciated. The supper was excellent and the fund will benefit appreciably. The convener and committee are to be highly congratulated on this splendid function.

Paarl is a centre of vigorous activity for I.U.A. During the past month they held a Grand Ball, successful Concert, Bazaar, Cake Sale and a number of Card Parties, all of which were well supported. The women of Paarl will participate in the Wonderland Fete and the Day in the Country. They are organising Rummage Sales, Musical Evenings, private Parties and a variety of other functions.

Zionist Socialist Knitting Group has arranged a number of functions for I.U.A. At Rummage Sales and Cake Stalls they have offered a large variety of articles for sale. Last Monday evening they experimented with a "Sale of Words" in the form of a Living Newspaper, of which the editor was Helena Lieberman. Included in the versatile programme were contributions by Mr. B. Padowich, Mrs. Gertrude Haas, Mr. Z. Avin, Mr. A. M. Melamet, Mr. G. Laden, Mrs. D. Levine, Mr. R. Matis and Miss Rita Cohen.

Muizenberg Combined Societies will hold a Grand Variety Concert in aid of the Israeli United Appeal at the Muizenberg Pavilion on Monday, 13th December, at 8.15 p.m. Admission 5/-. Exempt from tax.

Muizenberg Young Israel Society is again holding their Annual Ball, this time in aid of the Israeli United Appeal, at the Muizenberg Pavilion on Wednesday, 26th January. In the past five years substantial amounts have been raised in this manner for the Youth Aliyah.

The "Lizard Club," a new feature of the Society, caters for the younger set as in the past two years, and it is hoped that it again on this occasion will swell the Society's contribution to the Israeli United Appeal.

Children's Corner

of the
ISRAELI UNITED APPEAL

Dear Children,

Now school is over for the year and the summer holidays have come at last! Though history lessons are forgotten, here are some pleasant "dates" to remember: Thursday, 6th January: Children's Premier Matinee at the Odeon Cinema; Sunday, 16th January: "A Day in the Country." We are arranging swimming galas, athletics, pony rides, a scavenger hunt, and all sorts of fun for you children on that day.

How are you getting on with our story competition? You remember I asked you to write a story containing all of the following six words in any order you prefer: Donkey, Red, Bridge, Rainbow, Farmer, Tree. We hope to publish the winning stories in the under 12 and over 12 age groups in this column.

I know you will enjoy reading these verses sent us by Mrs. R. Sperber, a friend of our "Corner":—

"THE CHILDREN'S BOOK."

Said the weary-worn mother (too tired to knit):

"I want to make money, how can I do it?"

There must be some way, how I wish that I knew it!"

* * *

"Poor Mum!" chirped the little BIRDS flying above,

"If it isn't a nest or a playmate to love,

Just what can it be that she's wanting so badly?"

"MONEY," the BREEZE in the TREES whispered sadly.

"Perhaps MR. OWL, who is wiser than we,

Can help and advise her," suggested a TREE.

Said the OWL to poor Mother: "For good or for bad,

What do you want now that you haven't had?"

"HALF-CROWNS!" Mum exclaims, "and more names please bring back Of children—which our BOOK OF HONOUR does lack.

To have all we want and to keep out of debt,"

Said Mum, "we need more than we're able to get."

* * *

"Strange," said the OWL, "for I happen to know

All of the children saved some time ago.

Perhaps I'm dull-witted—to me it seems funny

That you should be asking me how to make money!

You want some advice?" (and the OWL'S eye was winking),

"Collect all the HALF-CROWNS they've saved up, I'm thinking."

So calling the children, to them the OWL said:

"What are your palms for?" Said they: "To be spread

Each with his HALF-CROWN in his outstretched hand,

To help other children in ISRAEL, OUR LAND.

Hurry! Oh, hurry! Poor dears, get them fed,

And now, worn-out Mother, please, please go to bed!"

Wishing you all a happy holiday,

AUNT RHODA.
