High Standard of Matthews Recital

IT is many years since we have had with us an overseas violinist of the standard of Thomas Matthews. His control of tone, the delicacy and beauty of his playing and his interpretation delighted a large audience on Sunday night.

The concert opened with a Purcell suite and was followed by Beethoven's Spring Sonata for violin and piano. Thomas Matthews and Ashley Hartley combined to make this Sonata a memorable performance. This work has a lyrical first movement, is followed by an impressive and melodious slow movement, and closes with an original scherzo and rondo played with freshness and brilliance.

The highlight of the evening was Bach's well-known Partitur in E Major, to which the violinist gave all the strength and flawlessness of his bowing.

Matthews versatility was well displayed in the second half of the programme, which varied from the dreamy Chopin Nocturne in D Flat, a dainty Haydn Menuett, the Caprice Vionnois to Paganini's brilliant Caprice No. 24.

Ashley Hartley's accompaniment was excellent throughout the concert.

The Cinema

Claudette Colbert, Joseph Cotton, Jennifer Jones, Shirley Temple, Monty Woolley, Lionel Barrymore and Robert Walker lead a cast of hundreds in "Since You Went Away." David O'Selznick's masterpiece now showing at the 20th Century. It is the story of the Hilton family, an average American household whose man has gone to war. Brilliantly acted—don't miss it!

"The Adventures of Marco Polo" will be welcomed back at the Empire by many who missed it and by many who want to see it again. It features popular Gary Cooper, who has the role of the first European to open a trade route between Europe and Asia, and throughout is exciting and filled with tense dramatic moments. An outstanding supporting cast.

Judy Garland will be heard in a number of new song hits in the grand musical comedy, "Meet Me in St. Louis," which is now showing at the Metro. The story is clever and interesting. Margaret O'Brien fills a leading role.

"Ghost Catchers" has been booked for the Plaza this week. The cast includes Olsen and Johnson, some beautiful glamour girls and a number of murderers and ghosts. The film is eerie, but will evoke a laugh rather than a shudder. First-rate entertainment.

Nelson Eddy is co-starred with Sussana Foster and Claude Rains in "Phantom of the Opera." The film is based on the classical theme of grim terror and startling mysticism. Music is superb with an orchestra and chorus of hundreds. A film that should be seen at the Colosseum.

U.Z.P. Talent Evening

THE Major Hall of the Coronation Hall was crowded at yet another function of "Party Month," the Talent Evening held on May 20. Individual and group items were rendered by the many affiliated societies of the United Zionist Party in the Transvaal. A very high standard prevailed throughout. The winning item was a poem depicting the salvation of Jewry by Eretz Israel, written and recited by Gloria Hammerschlag, of the Mountain View Zionist Youth Society. Joint second place was taken by Sheila Cohen and Bertha Sklar, recent winners in the Eisteddfod, who rendered dramatic items. Mr. S. Rome was a very able compere.

The participants were thanked by Mr. K. Silbermann, chairman of the Transvaal United Zionist Party Youth Executive, who presented the prizes and reported on the progress of Party Month. The report reflected the ever increasing strength of the U.Z.P.
