Bloemfontein Combined Jewish Women's Organisation

Following considerable negotiation the Bloemfontein Jewish Women's organisations have combined to form the Combined Women's Organisations of Bloemfontein. These united societies will concentrate on cultural and social programmes, as well as on fund-raising, which in itself requires a great deal of organisation.

The Combined Organisation held a successful fete in the Communal Hall on November 20, under the convener-ship of Mrs. W. H. Herberg. Mr. Bradlow, who opened the fete, referred to the activities of the Jewish women in Bloemfontein and stressed the importance of the work they had undertaken.

The fete realised over £600.

Other functions preceding the Fete realised an amount of over £1,200 over a period of eight months.

Rabbi Dr. M. C. Weiler is leaving by air for Cape Town, where he will address the Congress of the Union of Jewish Women of South Africa. He will return to Johannesburg on January 14.

Vryheid Zionist Youth Society

The Vryheid Zionist Youth Society has made considerable progress since its re-organisation at the beginning of 1946. The society is under the chairmanship of Yehudi Frame, assisted by Lila Rose and Basil Folb as vice-chairman and secretary. The members of the committee are: Anne Chesno, Joseph Grinspan, Henry Klotz and Jack Phillips.

A bioscope show and a concert were organised during the first week in December and an appeal was made by Rev. Kur for funds for the extension of the Talmud Torah. It was proposed that a portion of the profit realised from both functions be allocated towards this fund.
