Johannesburg and Durban, won eight different academy awards, apart from being voted the best film of the year by the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences of Hollywood.The other awards were for the best actor of the year (Frederic March), the best supporting actor of the year (Harold Russell), the best director of the year (William Wyler), the best screen play of the year, the best musical score the best film editing, the special award to Harold Russell and the Irving Thalberg award to Samuel Goldwyn.The film describes three veterans returning to a typical mid-west community who are faced with varied emotional experiences arising from their re-unions with the women in their lives.Assembled in the top bracket are Myrna Loy, Frederic March, Dana Andrews, Teresa Wright and Virginia
Mayo. Specially featured are Hoagy Carmichael and Cathy O'Donnell.
Worthy of special mention is Harold Russell, war casualty, who convincingly plays a maimed veteran.Based upon the theme of MacKinlay Kantor's "Glory For Me", the show has been developed and scripted by dramatist Robert E. Sherwood and directed by William Wyler, with pho-

UNITED ZIONIST PARTY OF SOUTH AFRICA Houghton Branch

A successful meeting of the above branch was held at the residence of Mrs. E. Melamed, 63, Central Street, Lower Houghton, on Monday, September 9.

Mr. Gus Saron, the General Secretary of the South African Jewish Board of Deputies, gave the large audience an analysis of the urgent problems facing South African Jewry in a talk entitled "Thinking Realistically About South African Jewry", and the vote of thanks was proposed by Mr. Jack Hersov.

The Houghton Branch is making excellent progress, and the United Zionist Party is successfully establishing similar active and progressive branches throughout the country.

FINE PERFORMANCE BY THEOFIL

Alex Theofil, the tenor from the Athens Opera House, received a rousing ovation from the large audience at the City Hall on Monday night when he sang a number of operatic songs as well as some short pieces in Greek, two of them his own compositions. His rendering of songs from "Tosca", "Pagliacci", and "Manon Lescaut" were particularly appreciated, as well as his own song, "The Eyes of Demos".

At his next concert, which will be held at the Johannesburg City Hall on Wednesday, October 1, he will sing the famous arias from the operas "Carmen", "Aida", "Il Trovatore", "Cavalleria Rusticana", Eliezer's aria from "The Jewess" and others.

Two very fine solo items were performed by Bruno Raikin, the Johannesburg pianist, who acted as Theofil's accompanist.

Harrismith Contribution to Youth Aliyah

The Jewish Ladies Guild of Harrismith have sent to Youth Aliyah a splendid contribution on the eve of Rosh Hashona for which the National Committee is truly grateful.

MR. H. HERBER RETURNS TO JOHANNESBURG

Mr. H. Herber, President of the S.A. Board of Jewish Education and a prominent leader of the community, and Mrs. Herber, returned to Johannesburg on Friday, September 19, after having been away from South Africa for some 18 months.

They were met at the station by a great number of friends and business associates as well as members of the S.A. Board of Jewish Education, including Mr. I. J. Hersch, Vice-President of the Board, who acted as president during Mr. Herber's absence.

Cracking with the suspense and thrills of one of author Raymond Chandler's top mystery novels, and highlighted with the excitement and challenging new roles for George Montgomery and newcomer Nancy Guild, "THE BRASHER DOUBLOON", Twentieth Century-Fox's current mystery-thriller, is now showing at the 20th Century Theatre, Johannesburg.

"THE BRASHER DOUBLOON"

In the supporting roles are Conrad Janis, Roy Roberts, Fritz Kortner, Florence Bates and Marvin Miller.
