Children's Concert

The Shul Hall of the Valley-Observatory Hebrew Congregation was filled to capacity recently for their first Chanukah concert, which was arranged by the Rev. J. Chaitowitz.

The proceedings commenced with the kindling of the candles, performed by Rev. J. Chaitowitz, assisted by a choir of the Hebrew School children.

A sketch, "The Living Menorah," was performed by the children. A vocal programme of Hebrew songs and recitations in Hebrew and English was rendered, and other items were dances, piano and violin solos. Two plays were presented by the Bnei Zion of the Observatory district which were loudly applauded.

Rev. Chaitowitz sang Hebrew and Yiddish songs.

Mr. J. Golding (chairman of the Hebrew School) spoke on the significance of Chanukah, and expressed the thanks of the congregation to the Rev. Chaitowitz, the Hebrew School children, and Mrs. S. Brittan, the accompanist.

PRESENTATION TO MRS. MIRIAM BRENNER

At a meeting of the Yeoville Jewish circle recently, a Golden Book Certificate was presented to Mrs. Miriam Brenner for her communal services. The chairman, Mr. J. Hersch, welcomed Rabbi A. H. Lapin and the gathering present. Rabbi Lapin made the presentations to Mrs. Brenner, and the hon. secretary, Mr. Harry Klass, read a letter of congratulations from the J.N.F.

Mrs. A. M. Lipschitz, Hon. Life President of the Yeoville Women's Zionist League, Mrs. Solly Sapire and Mr. Morry Soller, chairman of the Governing Body of the Yeoville Hebrew School, and Mr. D. Miwlowy paid tribute to Mrs. Brenner. Mrs. Brenner thanked the Yeoville Jewish Circle for the honour bestowed on her.

The gathering was entertained by Mrs. Hymie Miller, Mr. Isaac Bader, Mrs. Isadore Feinstein, Mr. Levin, Mrs. Nervich and Mrs. Levy.

HEBREW UNIVERSITY CAMPAIGN

EAST LONDON.—A delegation consisting of Sir Leon and Lady Simon and Rabbi Dr. M. C. Weiler, visited East London.

The whole community attended a most successful reception over which the chairman, Mr. E. Adleson, presided, and at which the Mayor, Mr. L. Lazarus, was present. Mr. L. Hellman, chairman of the East London Zionist Society, proposed the toast of the Jewish State, and stirring addresses were delivered. Rabbi Wald proposed a vote of thanks. There was a good response to the Appeal and a strong committee was formed. On Friday night, the delegation was entertained by Mr. and Mrs. A. Adleson. They were also the guests at a dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Traub. Mr. Traub is the chairman of the United Hebrew Congregation.

MIRIAM MARKS HEBREW SCHOOL BOARD

At the annual general meeting and prize distribution of the Miriam Marks School Board which took place recently, the chairman pointed out that Pretoria can boast of one of the finest institutions for Hebrew education in the Union, and that the results of this excellent tuition are evidenced by the very high standard attained by the Matriculation pupils in their final examinations in Hebrew.

The following committee was elected: Chairman, Mr. Richard Laks; vice-chairman, Mrs. E. Neufeld; treasurer, Mr. J. Goldin; secretary, Mr. M. Ginsburg; committee members, Messrs. A. Cooper, M. J. Freedman, M. Gershter, M. Hirshovitz, S. Katzen, and H. Schewitz.

Valley-Observatory Hebrew Congregation

The fifth general meeting of the above congregation was held at the Shul Hall, Observatory, recently.

Mr. I. Friedlander, the chairman, reviewed the activities of the congregation, and mentioned that the year, and mentioned that the congregation was fortunate in engaging the services of Rev. J. Chaitowitz.

"We have become affiliated with the United Hebrew Talmud Torah, and have taken over their classes to be under the supervision of Rev. J. Chaitowitz."

The chairman expressed his appreciation to Messrs. J. Sherman and Bacher for their substantial contributions. He also thanked Messrs. A. Levy and M. Kaplan for donations of two Sefer Torahs to the congregation.

The intention to build a modern Hebrew School and a kindergarten would need generous support. He thanked the committee for co-operation, and particularly hon. secretary, Mr. J. Golding, also thanked the Ladies' Committee.

Messrs. J. Sherman and M. Katz expressed the gratitude of the congregation to the chairman for his grace and substantial contributions.

The following committee was elected: Mr. I. Friedlander, chairman; Mr. A. Levy, vice-chairman; Mr. Joe Sher, treasurer; Mr. J. Golding, hon. secretary; trustees, Messrs. S. Bacher, D. Epstein, I.
