American Delegation To Investigate Relief Position In Europe

A delegation of American Jewish leaders has left for Paris to attend an all-Europe conference of the Joint Distribution Committee country directors. The conference, scheduled for April 5-11, will analyse the relief, resettlement and reconstruction phases of JDC-SAJA operations this year, aiding almost 1,000,000 Jewish men, women and children throughout the continent.

Edward M. M. Warburg, chairman of the JDC, will head the delegation. Dr. Joseph J. Schwartz, chairman of the European Executive Council of the JDC, will preside at the meeting.

"The conference," Mr. Leavitt, JDC Executive vice-chairman, declared, "will enable the delegation members to present to the American Jewish community an accurate, detailed picture of the present-day conditions of Europe's Jews, their problems and their needs. Their story will stimulate, I am sure, the greatest interest throughout the world."

Cape Clothing Committee of S.A.J.A.

At a meeting of the Clothing Committee of the S.A. Jewish Appeal held in Cape Town on March 24, Mr. H. Allschwang gave a report of activities during the past year. He stated that during this period six clothing drives had been held in Sea Point, Gardens, Tamboers Kloof, Vredehoek, Wynberg, Plumstead, Rondebosch, Kenilworth, Newlands, Claremont area, and Bellville, Goodwood, Parow area.

The drives had been successful, due to the hard work of the lady conveners responsible for the different areas. Mr. Allschwang paid a tribute to the untiring efforts of the vice-chairman, Mr. Rothgiesser, who was in charge of this section of the work.

Mr. Allschwang commented on the drive which had taken place by a committee under the chairmanship of Mr. Bobrow amongst wholesalers, retailers and manufacturers whereby a tremendous quantity of clothing and shoes had filled the depot.

Mr. Allschwang submitted details of the expenditure incurred in the running of the depot, the cost of which was borne by the women's section of the Cape Committee of the S.A. Jewish Appeal. In analysing the expenditure, the actual net cost worked out at 10d. per garment and 3s. 5d. a pair of shoes.

The chairman stated that in addition to the drives held locally, outlying districts such as Worcester,

This 15-foot-high bronze monument is being sent to Warsaw by the Society of Polish Jews as a memorial to "the heroic fighters of the Warsaw Ghetto." The monument is expected to arrive in Warsaw on April 15, for the fifth anniversary of the uprising in the ghetto. Made by the well-known Jewish sculptor, Nathan Rapoport, the monument was paid for by funds contributed by Jewish people all over the world. The bronze part of the monument will be fitted into a stone backing which already has been erected in the middle of a flat desert of ruins that once was Gesia and Zamenhofa Street in Warsaw. Dr. Louis Feiner, secretary general of the Society of Polish Jews in France, is shown addressing the audience at the unveiling ceremonies of the monument.

Oudtshoorn, De Aar, Upington, Luderitz, Windhoek and others had sent in many valuable parcels.

In conclusion, Mr. Allschwang said he appreciated the work done by the committee. He also thanked Mrs. Gorm, the supervisor of the clothing depot, and her staff for the efficient way the establishment had been run.

After discussion on the report, Mr. M. Michaels moved a vote of thanks to Mr. Allschwang for his valuable services in the past, and expressed the hope that he would resume the chairmanship after his few months' leave. Mr. M. H. Goldschmidt, chairman of the Cape Committee, seconded this and it was unanimously agreed by the committee that Mr. Allschwang should retain the chairmanship. During his absence Mr. Rothgiesser will act as chairman.
