"SIX FEET OF THE COUNTRY", directed by Lynton Stephenson, adapted from Nadine Gordimer's deeply moving story, already bought for viewing by BBC and American TV but spurned by SABC TV. Scheduled to be developed into a series for overseas viewing this movie, which contains Sandra Prinsloo's most exciting screen performance to date, also stars Wilson Dunster. Script by Barney Simon.

"BAR AND GER" The simple love story of a brother and sister. A nostalgic tragicomedy starring Yvonne Bryceland and Wilson Dunster, written by Geraldine Aron and directed by Ashley Lazarus. First performed at the Space Theatre in Cape Town, it has since played in Chicago and San Francisco, and is scheduled to play in Tel Aviv and Dublin.

"ONCE UPON A CIRCUS", filmed in Cape Town by Ashley Lazarus, a gentle, warm, humorous documentary study of Keith Anderson's extraordinary 'Flying Circus'. The unique children's circus that happened almost by accident when neighbourhood children of all ages, sizes and colours began watching and then participating in the tight-rope, trampoline and fire-eating activities of Anderson's circus training school.
