JOURNALIST: There weren't.

You can take it from ne, there weren.

There weren't any foreign Press in areas of Cape Town.
You see the point that I am getting at Although there may have been incleating yesterday in Sowoto where there were foreign Press present and I wor't argue where there were foreign Press present and I wor argue where there were foreign Press present and I
where there were far more, has ituation are seeking the publicity. And at the moment all Press have been barred from these areas where nothing is that you are taking people into these areas where to themselves what is taking place and that is the situation as it stands at the moment and that is the situation.

As this morning you took people in when you know the fowarship is quiet you know

Now the incident that was shown on the screen last night didn't take place until much later in the afternout, around lour o'clock is the place until much pened. Now we were there for most of the day and nothing happened. Now with suddenly at Because you know we had been four o'clock is it a problem. Because you know we had been four o'clock is it a problem. MELLET: Well some of these incidents that we have already got on film took place on Sun JOURNALIST: But Colonel, and get clear on this can get of the press here we to blame for all of it? MELLET: No not at all. The Press is the we would be no trouble in anybody else saying — traw without the presence of the press is contained by the press is to blame but what is happening and I think it you can just understand the situation of a troubled situation and the moment the people behind this are seeking the publicity, the whole thing has just pedered out and it's quiet, and the quiet, as the case but at the more in the situation of a trouble situation of a trouble very towous.

Unfortunately it is not possible from the actual film to identify the actual infun to identify the actual newsmen but there it was very obvious that at the church in Reginal Munda where it was fairly obvious that a newsman with his toeivism canners slung over this shoulder gave a black power at the shoulder gave a black power at the shoulder gave a black power and that we have on video casette.

And that we have on video casette.
