

A TRIO of warblers set to raise their voices in a good cause. They're Peter Davidson, Carol Scott (centre) and Fran Dowling. All will send the sound waves at a special braai to be held in aid of Tape Aids for the Blind on July 12 at 6 p.m.

The venue is the home of Mrs. Joan Lawrence, 45 St. Kilda Avenue, Durban North. She will be donating a 10-day "Slenderline" slimming course for a prize to be won by someone's Mum during the evening.

Extra info on the singers is that Carol and Fran have been appearing at parties and Natal "Tech" shows, while Peter has been heard on the Reef at places like The Copper Bowl, The Troubador, The Nite Beat, and in Durban at The Take Five and Athlone Gardens Hotel. Quite a sensational set-up for a swinging evening. Tickets are available from Tape Aids (Telephone 63126).

A braaiivlels attended by more than 300 people was held in the garden of Mrs. Joan Lawrence's home at Durban North in aid of Tape Aids for the Blind. Pictured round one of the braziers were (from the left) Mrs. Joan Lawrence, Mr. Philip Bonnin, a member of the Tape Aids for the Blind committee, and Miss Carol Scott and (behind) Fran Dowling, who entertained the crowd with folksinging.

On Saturday, July 20, a Charity Variety Concert organised by Mr. Philip Kairuz in the City Hall, will be held in aid of Tape Aids.
