

Folk weekend

AND FOR those of you who are folk fans, a weekend has been arranged at Bryanston on April, 22 and 23. All the folk singers will be there, and as many of you as possible. The organisers are expecting about 100 people. There will be a braaivleis, workshops and, of course, singing. The idea is to create a little village of folk enthusiasts. Anyone interested in going (and that includes me) can phone Miss Robyn Maisels at 23-3901 ext. 414. The cost will be R which I think is pretty reasonable.
