AQUARIUS (January 21 - February 19)

 Life often seems like one long balancing act. But then, you were born blessed with an amazing ability to square circles, explain paradoxes and wrestle with contradictory impulses. Every so often, you begin to yearn for a simpler existence. A: That's a mistake, you can't get one. And B: Even if you could, you wouldn't enjoy it. If something complicated and convoluted is now causing you confusion, find yourself something even more exasperating to focus on and you'll instantly begin to feel better. What needs to balance this week will! Visit www.cainer.com.

PISCES (February 20 - March 20)

 It is all getting very interesting. You are fascinated by a recent development. You

YOUR STARS

Jonathan Cainer

Some artists are "of their time". Some are ahead of it. Only a few are timeless. John Martyn defied definition. Born on September 11 1948, he turned the Virgo eye for detail into an ear for excellence. I often listen to his music while writing. I was sad to learn that he merged back into the infinite last Thursday. I predict the future will be full of his fans!
