

Holiday fun!

IF YOU'RE on school holiday and would like to meet some well-known show business personalities, you can't afford not to read FLAIR.

A part of our school holiday programme there will be a talent contest at Ster Elite 1, Mooi Street, from 9 am to 1 pm, when both the audience and contestants will meet the people judging the contest. Those interested should phone the Rand Daily Mail 28-1500, Ext 238.

All taking part will have the opportunity to win fabulous prizes and to stay to watch the film, "Benji", free of charge.

If you would rather just watch the contest and film, tickets, at the special price of 75c are obtainable from the Ster Elite booking office from 8.30 am.

For skateboard fans there will be daily demonstrations on the art of skateboarding given by the six current South African champions at various venues along the Reef. Phone the Mail, Ext 237 for details.

Wednesday is the day for aspiring artists. Free lessons will be given by Brian Eriksson each Wednesday at St George's Church Hall opposite Joubert Park from 10.30 am to 12.30 pm. Those interested should phone the Mail, Ext 311.

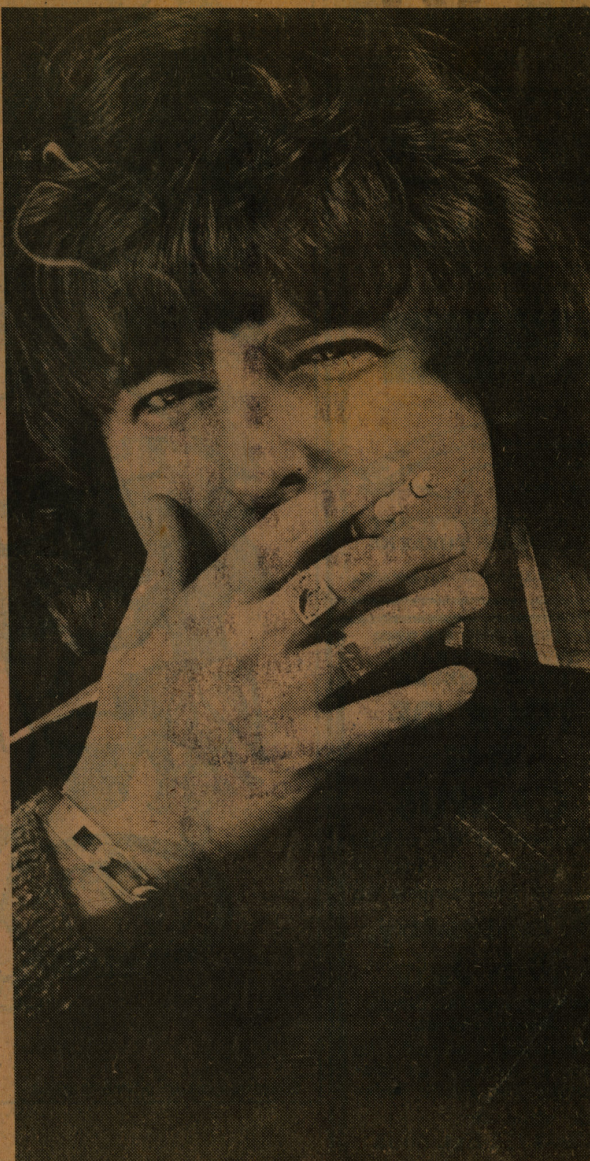

On Thursday, July 28, there will be a trip to Johannesburg Zoo. Transport will be provided by the "Mail" but children must pay the zoo admission fee. Phone Ext 236 for details.

And we've something for music lovers too — on Friday, July 29, the group, "Sheriff", who are currently taking South Africa by storm, will perform at the Market Theatre from 2 to 4 pm. Tickets, at only 40c each are available from the Rand Daily Mail, 171 Main Street, Johannesburg.

And these are just the highlights of the school holiday programme. Watch FLAIR for more exciting details.

Top South African singer-songwriter, judge the singing Ashley Parker, will category in the talent contest tomorrow.
