

David Marks, the Burt Bacharach of South Africa, currently involved with Hugh Tracey's 'International Library of African Music', wishes he could: 'Meet Lennon and McCartney, Bob Dylan and Charlie Chaplin. And how about putting a few extra hours in the day — so that I can listen to even more music.'