

Campus solidarity. The scene last night at Natal University in Pietermaritzburg as students showed support for fellow-students in Cape Town. They condemned violence against peaceful protesters and called for an inquiry into the student events in Cape Town. About 3 000 people were at the meeting.