

David's 'club' career started in 1966. He continued to work in clubs and hotels across Johannesburg with the likes of Des and Dawn Lindberg, Colin Shamley, Stan Domp, Brian Finch, Richie Morris, Brian and Bob Wilson, Mannie Mannin, and the late Barney Simon. He also worked on various projects with Tony Campbell, Dave Berman, Rodney Barnet, Stan James, Roger Lucey, Dennis Feldman and Ton Den Teuling & Peter Hubner.

After moving permanently to Durban in the mid '80's, David has continued to establish projects in Durban into the '90's. David has also been involved in promoting international concert tours, the most recent being the legendary Crosby, Stills & Nash in 1996.

David has recently returned from a very successful concert at Woodstock to showcase the Hidden Years Album.

David now lives in Durban with his inspiration of the last 27 years, wife Fran, their 4 children & a grandchild.....and its only the beginning.
