

Soweto alive concert

Arts Alive & Radio Metro

To crown what has been three weeks of triumphant celebration of different cultures, Arts Alive brings an outdoor, international music festival to the Soweto community for the first time in 20 years. Featuring an exciting programme, Arts Alive says "Le! Ngeyenu" - a day for all the family.

Soweto Youth Jazz Orchestra led by Mokale Koapeng of the Pelmama Academy of Music in Dobsonville will be opening up the concert. (12.00 - 12.45)

Jazz vocalist Trude Aspeling has played at the world famous jazz joint, Ronnie Scotts and has toured with South African jazz giant Abdullah Ebrahim. She performs with saxophone maestro McCoy Mrubata and his band. (13.00 - 13.45)

Staying in the southern African region, Andy Brown and the Storm from Zimbabwe incorporates reggae, rock and rap to form a modern African sound. Skank, swing and rock to fusion - played outdoors for maximum enjoyment. (14.00 - 14.45)

South African bard Ringo Madlingozi will rock with his fusion of various indigenous sounds like Isiphiti-phithi. (15.00 - 15.45)

Swing, salsa, gyrate or simply listen and be mesmerised by Baaba Maal and his band Daande Lenol (Voice of the People). There are not many live international acts which compare to the captivating image of Senegalese attire, stunning dance, kora and talking drums.
(16.00 - 17.30)

ARTS ALIVE

INTERNATIONAL FESTIVAL

Major Sponsors:

The Greater Johannesburg Transitional
Metropolitan Council (GJTMC)

Radio Metro - The media sponsor for the Soweto Alive Concert

The Rockefeller Foundation, New York, USA for supporting Baaba Maal and band Daande Lenol

Special thanks to:

Sandown Motors for providing a Limo Mercedes for Baaba Maal's ground transport

New Age Beverages for providing drinks for the artists

NEW CAR SALES • USED CAR SALES
SERVICE AND REPAIRS • GENUINE PARTS AND ACCESSORIES • TAILORED FINANCIAL PACKAGES

When only the best will do.

VILLAGE CLOSE, RIVONIA ROAD, SANDOWN. TELEPHONE (011) 884-9200