Shunyata Valley adjoins the Cedarberg Wilderness Area and backs directly onto the Wolfsberg Cracks. Please respect the conservation codes of this beautiful natural area.

PLEASE: NO DOGS.

A river runs through it in a series of pools for day-long dips.

FACILITIES

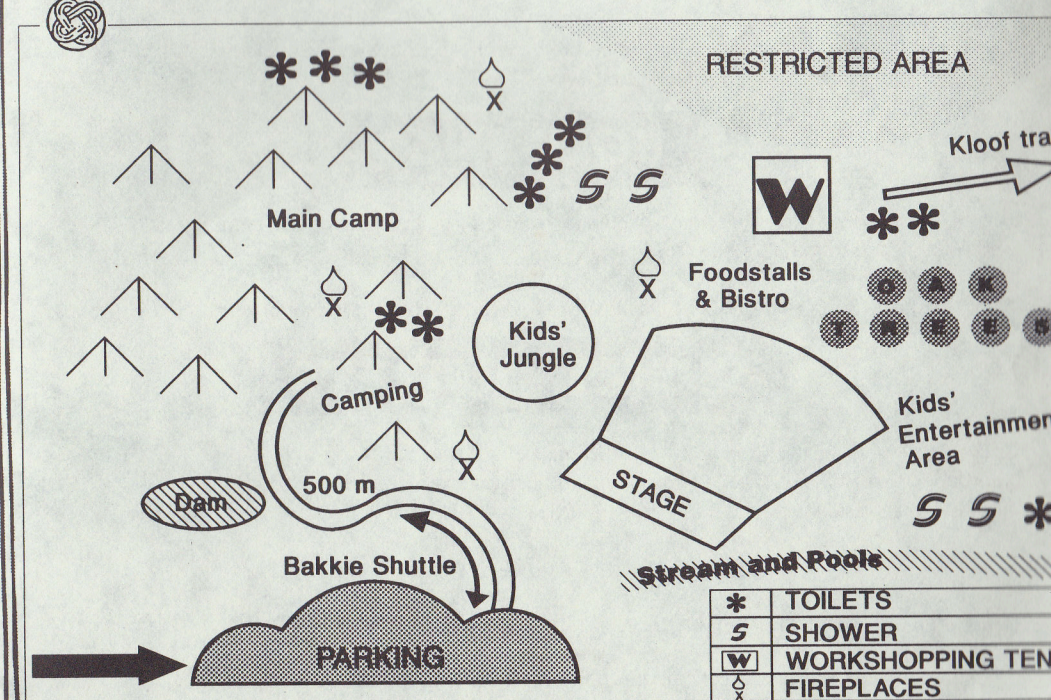

Campsites, showers and toilets.

We're in a high-risk fire hazard area, so please only braai in the designated braai/fire areas. (Please bring wood.)

Foodstalls, cold beer, open-air bistro.

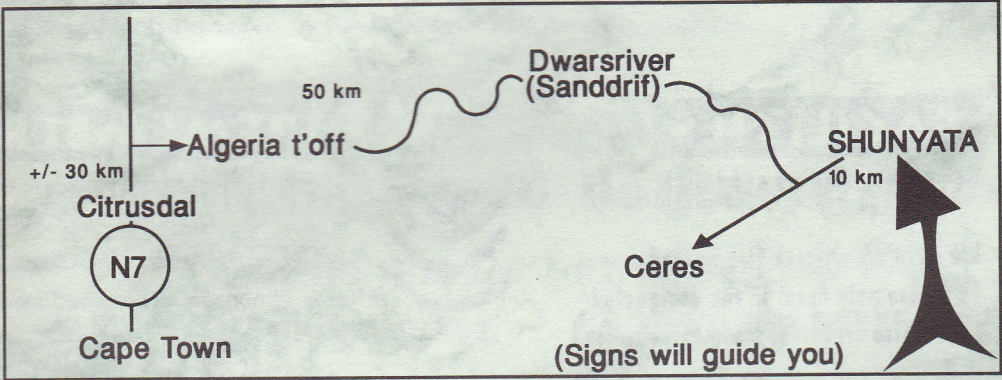

REMEMBER

Tent, HAT, sunscreen, cushions, mugs or paper cups (no glass breakables please). Umbrellas are a good idea.

The parking area is half a kilometre from the campsites. We've arranged a bakkie shuttle to take you from the parking area to your campsites.

GETTING THERE

- It's a four-hour drive from Cape Town and the music starts at 2:00pm on Saturday, so plan to get there in good time.
- Travel in convoy with people you intend to be with, so you can camp together.
- Campsites allocated on first-come first-served basis.

BOOKINGS

The all-inclusive price for three days of music, children's entertainment and camping is R230 per person (children under 16 years free).
