WHEN I PAINT MY MASTERPIECE

© 1971 BIG SKY MUSIC

*Oh, the streets of Rome are filled with rubble,
Ancient footprints are everywhere
You can almost think that you're seein' double
On a cold, dark night on the Spanish Stairs.
Got to hurry on back to my hotel room,
Where I've got me a date with Botticelli's niece.
She promised that she's be right there with me
When i paint my masterpiece.*

*Oh, the hours I've spent inside the Coliseum,
Dodging lions and wastin' time.
Oh, those mighty kings of the jungle, I could hardly stand to see 'em,*

*Yes, it sure has been a long, hard climb.
Train wheels runnin' through the back of my memory,
Where I ran on the hilltop following a pack of wild geese.
Someday, everything is gonna be smooth like a rhapsody
When I paint my masterpiece.*

*Sailin' 'round the world in a dirty gondola,
Oh, to be back in the land of Coca-Cola!*

*I left Rome and landed in Brussels,
On a plane ride so bumpy that I almost cried,
Clergymen in uniform and young girls pullin' muscles,
Everyone was there to greet me when I stepped inside.
Newspapermen eating candy
Had to be held down by big police.
Someday, everything is gonna be diff'rent
When I paint my masterpiece.*
