WE CAN'T LIVE IN PEACE AND HAVE DIGNITY IF WE'RE ALL LIVING IN THE SAME HOUSE.

A home is the cornerstone of society; everyone should have the right to a home. Yet, in Cape Town alone, nearly half a million people don't have houses.

Stands have three or more families living on them. At night lounges become bedrooms and many people sleep under kitchen tables.

The ANC has a plan to solve this overcrowding. To build houses — proper houses — and improve the quality of life for those who've been denied this right.

For as long as so many are living without adequate housing, South Africa will know no peace.

Over the next five years, the ANC will build one million homes. We will work together with banks and building societies so that people will have the means to build their own homes.

We know there are no quick solutions to the decades of neglect. But this plan is a real beginning. It will create jobs, help bring peace and hope to our land.

By working together, we can build a better life for all.

A better life for all.

Working together for jobs, peace and freedom.
