

CAN YOU IMAGINE THE CAPE STRANGLER HAVING THE VOTE?

THE ANC AND THE DP CAN.

Imagine what type of person the Station Strangler must be to commit such humanly degrading acts. They are, to say the least, severe violations of the boys' basic human rights.

Murderers, paedophiles, arsonists, extortionists, kidnappers, all criminals in fact, violate the basic human rights of innocent people in the same way.

Society punishes them by curtailing their rights. We imprison them, limiting their freedom of movement and speech. They lose their right to vote. It's part of the price they pay for being criminals.

The ANC and the DP want to give back to prisoners their right to vote. Not only would that be like reducing their punishment, it would also be playing down the severity of their crimes. For the sake of the victims and innocent people, we refuse to do this.

We believe that all prisoners sentenced to jail for serious offences, without the option of a fine, should not have the right to vote.

The ANC talks endlessly about basic rights but does not care about victims and innocent people. They're prepared to forget about them for the sake of a few more votes.

The Democratic Party has done an about turn and now stands for voting rights for all prisoners. Their so-called commitment to law and order has been nothing but lip service.

Don't waste your vote. Vote for a party that truly believes in law and order, that can stand up for your rights. Vote National Party.
