REPORTED A VERY FINE BULL, which has been stable ever since. On Wednesday evening Sir Walter went into the stable, as he had been accustomed to do before, and walked straight up to the manger and commenced smoothing the animal.

parts. The town has in consequence presented quite a lively appearance. - K. W. T. Gazette. THE BASUTOS WAR. The latest advices from Basutoland seem to show that it would be no very onerous task to get the better of Moshesh, but they present such a view of the defects of the Boers as to make it pretty clear that they will never take Thaba Bosigo by assault.

Immediately upon arrival of the news here, our Landwehr, Capt. von Brandis, started for the scene of action, requested by some of the inhabitants of this town to obtain the body of G. Lyon and bring it here, where would give it a public burial in admiration of the man, and through sympathy for the widow that he leaves behind with nine children.
