

The Empire.

The programme at the Empire this week is a good all round one and heading the bill is that fine operatic soprano, Miss Vera Lavrova who possesses a really wonderful voice. Irene Magley and Monte Wolf prove themselves to be great favourites, being not only lively singers and dancers but first class humourists. The Cycling Brunettes indeed give a remarkable performance which will be hard to beat, whilst others who contribute to a fine programme are Eddie Gray, Loch and Lomond, Harold Walden, Tom Fox and Freddy Foss. Heading the bill next week will be Miss Victoria Carmen and her shadow.

Lat-st Music.

The latest music issued by Messrs Reeder and Walsh consists of four excellent songs entitled "Bachelor Joe," "The Road Across the Sea," "Hazel Eyes" and "To-night A Dream, Tomorrow A Memory". The first three are composed by Lauri Bowen and are being sung with success by all the leading vocalists. Coming to the pianoforte music there is first of all "Golden Dreams" a delightful valse by Roland Bruce and two small suites for the piano, the first entitled "A Casket Of Jewels" by Cyril Maclean and the second "Rosanne" by Jean Morel.
