The Durban Jewish Benevolent Society held their Annual General Meeting in the Synagogue Chambers, St. Andrew Street, on Sunday, 26th October. Amongst those present were Mr. S. Sever, (in the chair,) and Messrs. A. Berman, L. M. Braham, L. Barnett, L. Davis, H. Ellis, B. Fisher, P. Wartski, S. Bloom, M. Feigenbaum and the Revs. E. M. Levy, N. Menachemson and Rubin and about 50 others. After the chairman had exhaustively gone into the years working of the Society and the treasurer had presented his annual balance sheet and report, the following gentlemen were elected to the executive committee for the ensuing year: Messrs. S. Sevel, president; A. J. Lipinski, Treasurer; J. Greeve, Secretary, and L. M. Braham, A. Berman, L. Davis, H. Ellis, B. Fisher, M. Feigenbaum, C. L. Greenberg, M. Moss, J. Moshal and S. Morris. Whilst the scrutineers were busy with the ballot papers, the Rev. Mr. Levy addressed the meeting in his usual able manner, dealing with charity from every aspect, the Rev. S. Menachemson, with a few exceptionally well-chosen words proposed a vote of thanks to Mr. Levy. After the Rev. Rubin and Mr. S. Bloom had made a few comments on the same subject, the meeting closed with the usual vote of thanks to the chair.

Mr. Henry Friesman of Amersfoort was on a visit to Durban last week.

Heartiest congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Morris Woolfson on the birth of their daughter. The happy event took place on October the 17th.

On Sunday afternoon last the marriage of Lily, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. Droyman to Mr. Joshua Cohen was solemnised in the Synagogue, St. Andrews Street. The Synagogue, which was filled with smartly gowned guests, was decorated with carnations and lilies by the girl friends of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. E. M.

Levy assisted by the Rev. N. Menachemson and was fully choral. The unterfuhrers were Mr. and Mrs. S. Drayman and Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cohen whilst Messrs. R. Cohen, J. Droyman, H. Brookstone and J. Brookstone acted as canopy bearers, the duties of best man devolved upon Mr. A. Rubens. Very charming did the bride look in her gown of grecian simplicity composed of white embossed satin its sole ornament consisting of georgette rose buds worked on net trimming the yoke and also appearing on the skirt. She wore a full court train falling from the shoulders and the conventional veil held in position by a coronet of silver leaves. Her bouquet consisted of lilies and carnations. The bride was attended by two bridesmaids, the Misses Joyce Droyman and Millie Brookstone, similarly attired in green taffetas and black picture hats, they carried bouquets of pink carnations. Very sweet and winsome were the two little flower-girls, the Misses Adele and Isabelle Cohen, the pretty little daughters of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Cohen, daintily frocked in pale lemon georgette with accordean pleated skirts and headresses of Parma violets they carried stiff posies of violets and prim roses. Subsequently a reception was held at the bride's residence where their many friends assembled to extend hearty good wishes to the newly wedded couple.

Miss Rose Alper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alper of Durban, has, we understand, been selected as leading soprano in the "Magic Flute" which is to be produced under the directorship of Mr. Julius Harrison of the British National Opera Company, London. This is a great honour for so youthful a vocalist as Miss Alper, who is only twenty years of age. Next winter Miss Alper hopes to pay a visit to South Africa and will probably make a short tour of the country, with the object of giving recitals.

On November the 4th the Duban Jewish Ladies Guild are holding their Annual Simchas Torah Ball. The revue is to be the Pavilion which forms an ideal setting for a function of this sort. Vos' popular orchestra is to be in attendance which is sufficient to say that the music will be "par excellence." The funds are in aid of the Park Street Synagogue and the Cape Town Orphanage and as "Ladies Guild" is synonymous with success there should be no doubt as to the popularity of the function.
