The opening ceremony of the New University will be performed by Earl Balfour on April 1st. Mr. Schwartz is accompanied by his wife and daughter.

At a meeting of the Dramatic Section and Orchestral Section of the Cape Jewish Guild, the following Sub-Committees were appointed:—Dramatic Section, Chairman Mr. P. Valentine, Secretary, Miss D. infusion of new blood in this respect augurs well for the progressive programme for the future.

On the 18th of February, the Committee will be "At Home" to the members at the Old Synagogue and the well known Jewish Tenor, Mr. Joel Myerson has promised to contribute several items to the programme.

Mr. S. M. Goldstein, Editor and Managing Director of the S. A. Jewish Chronicle arrived in Cape Town by Monday's Union Express.

As a result of the Concert organised by the children of the Cape Jewish Orphanage recently, it is pleasing to know that the sum of nearly £100 was realised. The success of this affair was due solely to the Principal, who was ably assisted by several of the older children. The excellence of the sketches staged on that occasion has prompted many requests for repeat performances, and it is hoped at some future date to arrange further Concerts.

Recently an "Orphanage Day" was organised and flags sold amongst the visitors at Muizenberg, on behalf of the Cape Jewish Orphanage. Several members of the Committee worked indefatigably, and as a result of their efforts the sum well over £100 was realised. The collection took place during the time the children were on a holiday at Muizenberg.

The school vacation being ended, the children have returned to their scholastic duties fully refreshed and invigorated for a further term. Those children attending the Public Schools made excellent progress during the past year. Three girls and one boy obtained first class passes, 4 boys obtained 2nd and 2 girls and one boy 3rd. This is exceptionally good, particularly taking into consideration the fact that many of the children originate from Russia.

Mrs. J. Carasov and children arrived in Cape Town by the Intermediate Steamer, on Monday, after an absence in Europe of six months.

Miss Ray Abel, of East London has been spending a holiday in the Peninsula, and left for home by the Arundel Castle, on Tuesday.

Owing to pressure of business and other communal duties, Mr. Woolf Harris was unable to retain the Treasurership of the United Hebrew Schools, and for various reasons difficulties were experienced in obtaining a successor. However, Mr. J. Ginnes,
